COACH SCHIANO

CHOP

COACH SCHIANO

The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his fourth season back as the head football coach "On the Banks." The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native is in his second stint with the Scarlet Knights after taking the program to new heights from 2001-11.

Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to seven bowl appearances with five bowl championships, coached 97 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation so far during his time leading Rutgers football. That hallmark of standout academic performance proved to be the difference maker in sending Rutgers to its 11th bowl berth at the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 18 Rutgers All-America selections.

▶ RUTGERS GETS YOU READY

RUTGERS GETS YOU READY

Rutgers football continues to set records both on and off the field under the guidance of head coach Greg Schiano. Upholding the academic prestige of Rutgers University is the standard for the Scarlet Knights, who secured the nation's top Academic Progress Rate in 2010 and ranked No. 2 in 2011. The emphasis on academics continues with a program-record 57 named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2021, 46 honorees in 2020 and 41 in 2022, including 22 earning distinguished status altogether (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA in team history during the spring 2023 semester.

The Scarlet Knights have made their impact felt in the community as well, volunteering with Special Olympics NJ, visiting local hospitals and participating in youth camps. The group has also lent its voice to critical discussions around social activism, racial justice and tolerance.

FACILITIES

FACILITIES

Rutgers football has one of the top football complexes in the nation. Included within the Hale Center is the state-of-the-art Ron and Joanna Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, an interactive lobby entrance, spacious meeting rooms, a player lounge and more.

The recently upgraded Marco Battaglia Practice Complex is the site where the Scarlet Knights train and practice and their downtime is spent in the the new Greg and Anna Brown Locker Room, thanks to the generosity of the Brown family.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIPS

After making one prior trip to a bowl game in Rutgers football history, Schiano led the team to six bowls in seven seasons, including the program's first bowl victory. The Scarlet Knights won the last five during that stretch, which was the longest active streak in the nation following the 2011 season. RU won its sixth bowl championship after defeating North Carolina in the 2014 Quick Lane Bowl.

Rutgers football has established a strong pipeline to the National Football League, with 19 Scarlet Knights on rosters ahead of the 2023 season. Fourteen former Rutgers football standouts logged snaps in the league last fall, while 12 advanced to the playoffs. Michael Burton and Isiah Pacheco helped the Kansas City Chiefs to a 38-35 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl LVII, with Burton and Pacheco becoming the 17th and 18th Scarlet Knights in program history to win a Super Bowl. Pacheco finished with a game-high 76 rushing yards and a touchdown, becoming the first Scarlet Knight to score in a Super Bowl since L.J. Smith hauled in a touchdown reception for the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX. Burton played extensively on special teams and also appeared in the backfield with Pacheco in the fourth quarter, helping Pacheco spring free for a 10-yard run to pick up a first down and help the Chiefs continue their game-winning scoring drive.

THE RUTGERS BOARDWALK

THE RUTGERS BOARDWALK

New Jersey is a state known for its grit, passion and energy. There is no better example of all of these things than Rutgers Football game day at SHI Stadium. Home of the Rutgers Scarlet Knights, SHI Stadium is located on Busch Campus in Piscataway, New Jersey. Packed, loud and 52,454 proud, SHI Stadium is the site for the ultimate college game day experience. The fun does not just begin at kickoff. Four hours prior to the start of each game, New Jerseyans unite in the excitement of our game day experience with The Rutgers Boardwalk. Visit The Rutgers Boardwalk to enjoy carnival games, rides, live entertainment, special guests, a beer garden, New Jersey's best food trucks and more. Entrance is free, and there is tons of fun for the whole family!

Get there early for the pregame parade and pep rally featuring the Marching Scarlet Knights, Spirit Team, Sir Henry and the Scarlet Knight riding his horse "Excalibur" down The Rutgers Boardwalk just before the football team arrives. Then, join your Scarlet Knights and head coach Greg Schiano at team arrival for the traditional Scarlet Walk! Get your high-fives from the team along the Scarlet Walk as they honor the long-standing tradition of touching the First Game statue that commemorates Rutgers' victory in the first college football game ever played.

In New Jersey, our fans are just louder. Inside SHI Stadium you will find all of the traditions, characters and festivities of Rutgers Football. Be on the lookout for the Scarlet Knight, who can be seen riding his horse "Excalibur" across the field each time Rutgers scores. As the fans cheer you will also hear the boom of the revolutionary war-era cannon, fired by our historic Cannon Crew that symbolizes Henry Rutgers, the University's founder and American Revolutionary War colonel. You will also take in amazing fireworks and the classic celebratory train horn. Atop SHI Stadium, look for the number 52 displayed proudly over the 50-yard-line in honor of Eric LeGrand, a Rutgers icon and the only player in program history to have his number retired.

In the student section behind the south end zone, don't miss the Riot Squad, the best and most passionate group of student fans in the country. Next to them, you'll see and hear our Marching Scarlet Knights supplying energy and Rutgers pride to game day through fight songs, chants, as well as pregame and halftime performances. High above all of the festivities, check out SHI Stadium's brand-new state-of-the-art videoboard where you can catch exciting moments, such as the team's dramatic walk from the locker room to the field and the classic Sopranos-themed pregame video. Game day at SHI Stadium promises to be a memorable experience.

Located in the world's largest media market and the epicenter of the business world, the Rutgers campus provides access to the best that New Jersey has to offer. The New Brunswick campus is just minutes away from New York City and the Jersey Shore. Local hot spots like Philadelphia and Atlantic City are a short drive away from campus, making the Garden State a sought-after destination.

NEW JERSEY

WELCOME TO
New Jersey

Situated in the nation's largest media market, Rutgers student-athletes are uniquely positioned to capitalize on the exposure from nearly seven million television households in the most populated market area with over 20 million people. Rutgers also offers access to the country's most successful corporations and brands, and membership in the premier college athletics conference in the Big Ten.

CHOP4CHANGE

Chop4Change, a 501c3 charity, involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

GREG SCHIANO HEAD COACH (15TH SEASON)

The all-time wins leader in Rutgers football history, Greg Schiano is in his fourth season back as the head football coach "On the Banks." The Wyckoff, New Jersey, native is in his second stint with the Scarlet Knights after taking the program to new heights from 2001-11.

Schiano has directed the Scarlet Knights to seven bowl appearances with five bowl championships, coached 97 RU players who signed NFL contracts and guided the program to the top APR score in the nation so far during his time leading Rutgers football. That hallmark of standout academic performance proved to be the difference maker in sending Rutgers to its 11th bowl berth at the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl. The 2006 National Coach of the Year owns three nine-win campaigns and coached 18 Rutgers All-America selections.

Coming back to Piscataway in Dec. 2019, Schiano has built the program with a foundation based on F.A.M.I.L.Y., TRUST and CHOP, emphasizing player and cultural development.

In 2022, Schiano led Rutgers to a 3-0 start for the second-straight season, the first time that had been done since 2007 and 2008. The victory over Temple marked the 79th victory for Schiano to pass the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set its average home attendance record as interest in the program continues to rise.

One of eight players to collect All-Big Ten honors, three-time captain P Adam Korsak earned First Team All-America status and won the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history. The defense was highlighted by Third Team All-Big Ten pick DL Aaron Lewis, as the unit improved by nearly 50 yards per game in total defense.

The Scarlet Knights continue to develop players for the NFL, with DB Christian Braswell drafted by the Jaguars and six others signing contracts.

The 2021 season featured two Big Ten road wins, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. The defense finished second in the conference in third-down conversions against, while the offense saw both WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isaiah Pacheco (Chiefs) selected in the NFL Draft. Led by Korsak, an All-America honoree by multiple outlets, the punt unit set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25). Rutgers went 5-0 when committing no turnovers, with seven from the 2021 roster earning invitations to postseason all-star games and five signing NFL contracts, including Pacheco, who went on to help the Chiefs win Super Bowl LVII as the team's starting tailback.

With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. Johnny Langan garnered Rutgers' MVP for the game after contributing in numerous ways, as the Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation's sixth-oldest bowl game.

On the recruiting front, Schiano and his staff have continued to build the roster starting with the top players in New Jersey, as well as in the State of Rutgers and the Big Ten footprint. Rutgers signed the top recruit from New Jersey, New York and Kentucky in the 2022 class, adding the top player from New York again in 2023. The 2022 class finished ranked as the highest for the Scarlet Knights in the Big Ten era according to ESPN and 247Sports. In addition, the program has successfully used the transfer portal to identify talent and cultural fits to immediately impact the program.

The 2020 season presented unforeseen challenges dealing with the coronavirus pandemic. Playing a Big Ten-only schedule, the Scarlet Knights were one of just two teams in the conference to play all nine of its scheduled games. RU, despite missing spring and summer camp, matched the program high with three Big Ten victories, all away from Piscataway to equal the number of league road wins the previous six seasons combined.

The Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. That included four on the top-three teams, with WR Aron Cruickshank, the Big Ten Rodgers-Dwight Return Specialist of the Year and honorable mention All-America pick by Phil Steele, and LB Olakunle Fatukasi both earning first-team honors. Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season, with eight games of at least 20 points after reaching the mark only five times in the prior four years. The 13.4 more points per game than 2019 marked the fourth-best improvement nationally following the regular season, while the scoring differential in Big Ten play was the best for the team by a margin of 8.6. The defense had at least one take-away in 8-of-9 games with 19 overall, the most since 2012, and led the league with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.

Off the field, the Scarlet Knights launched #Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in elections. The initiative also involves giving back to the community through various forms and continues to be a staple of the Rutgers football culture.

The program also achieved academic success with 144 student-athletes recognized on the Fall Academic All-Big Ten list the past three years, resetting the program record twice. The team posted its highest GPA ever as a program during the spring 2023 semester.

2006 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

HEAD COACH GREG SCHIANO

SCHIANO HAS LED RU TO SEVEN BOWL GAMES

After making one prior trip to a bowl game in Rutgers football history, Schiano has led the team to seven bowls. That includes five consecutive victories with the 2006 Texas Bowl being the first postseason win in Rutgers history. In addition, RU was ranked in 20 weeks during Schiano's first tenure after appearing in the AP Poll only nine times prior.

Building up the Scarlet Knights with three rejuvenating recruiting classes to start, Schiano put together an upset win over Syracuse to close 2003 before knocking off Michigan State to start 2004. The team broke through in 2005 with a 7-5 record, the first winning season since 1992, and a trip to the Insight Bowl for RU's first bowl appearance since 1978.

Moving to the memorable 2006 campaign, Rutgers went 11-2, earned the program's first national top-10 ranking, peaking at No. 7, and won a bowl championship with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl. "Pandemonium in Piscataway" was achieved with a 28-25 upset of No. 3 Louisville in front of a raucous home crowd and national television audience. It was the first triumph for the program over a top-25 opponent since 1988. Schiano collected the Eddie Robinson, Walter Camp, Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year, as well as the Big East Coach of the Year following the season. The final national ranking of No. 12 still stands as the high-water mark in program history.

The momentum continued in 2007 with eight more wins, which included a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season was capped by running past Ball State, 52-30, in the International Bowl and set school records for scoring (426), first downs (294) and total offense (5,841). RU also became the first and only team in NCAA history to have a 3,000-yard passer (QB Mike Teel), a 2,000-yard rusher (RB Ray Rice) and two 1,000-yard receivers (WR Kenny Britt & WR Tiquan Underwood) in the same season. The 2008 campaign started 1-5, but the Scarlet Knights reeled off a six-game winning streak to become bowl eligible again and went on to beat NC State, 29-23, in the Papajohns.com Bowl to finish with seven-straight in the win column. Then in 2009, RU beat a top-25 opponent for the fourth consecutive year with a 31-0 shutout of No. 23 USF and took down UCF, 45-24, in the St. Petersburg Bowl to finish off a 9-4 season.

In 2011, Rutgers had its third nine-win season under Schiano, tying Burns for the most in program history. The Scarlet Knights defeated Iowa State, 27-13, in the Pinstripe Bowl for the fifth-straight bowl win.

Schiano has coached the leading rusher, passer and receiver by yards in Rutgers football history, sending all to the NFL. Rice finished with 4,926 rushing yards, 1,812 more than second place, with 49 touchdowns. He holds the top two spots on the RU single-game rushing leaderboard with a high of 280 in the 2008 International Bowl. Teel was a three-year starter and is the only signal caller in school history to lead the Scarlet Knights to three bowl victories. Throwing for 9,398 yards overall, he still owns single-game school records for passing yards (447) and touchdowns (7) in Rutgers' 63-14 victory over Louisville in 2008. Kenny Britt was a primary target for Teel, recording 3,403 receiving yards. He once had five consecutive games with over 100 yards and totaled 14 such outings, both school standards.

Schiano has also turned special teams into a game-changing force for the Scarlet Knights. RU has blocked 67 kicks to rank among the nation's leaders, while scoring 59 defensive/special teams touchdowns, including eight since 2020. PK Jeremy Ito shattered the school record with 80 career field goals and earned All-America status, with Korsak also achieving national accolades in helping RU set the NCAA record for net punt average (45.25) in 2021 and leading the country in punt defense with minus 11 return yards against in 2022.

While producing victories at a rate unprecedented in the program's history, the Rutgers football team is also committed fully to succeeding in the classroom. In 2010, Rutgers ranked first in the nation in Academic Progress Rate. The team followed that up with the nation's No. 2 ranking in 2011. The program was the lone state university to be ranked in the top 10 percent nationally in APR during each of Schiano's last five seasons of his first term. DB Nate Jones became the program's first two-time CoSIDA Academic All-America selection (2002-03) and was a member of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar Class of 2003, one of just eight FBS players honored. In addition, LB Brandon Renkert earned CoSIDA Academic All-America status in 2007, while FB Brian Leonard received the prestigious Draddy Trophy, recognized as the "Academic Heisman," in 2006.

The emphasis on academics continued with a program-record 57 named to the Academic All-Big Ten list in 2021, 46 honorees in 2020 and 41 in 2022, including 22 earning distinguished status altogether (3.7 GPA or better). The program recorded the highest GPA in team history during the spring 2023 semester.

Known as a tireless recruiter with the ability to spot talent and develop players, Schiano has mentored 97 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts. That includes first-round picks in Britt (2009), OL Anthony Davis (2010) and DB Devin McCourty (2010). Rutgers had never had a player taken in the first round before Britt went 30th overall to the Tennessee Titans. Davis' selection at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers marked the highest draftee in school history. McCourty, who went 27th to the New England Patriots, won three rings in five trips to the Super Bowl during his illustrious professional career.

Both Melton (Seahawks) and Pacheco (Chiefs) were drafted in 2022, with Pacheco becoming one of best stories in the NFL with 830 rushing yards, five touchdowns and victory in Super Bowl LVII as a rookie. Pacheco joined FB Michael Burton on the Chiefs to make it 19 RU players coached by Schiano to reach the Super Bowl and 13 to win a Super Bowl ring. In 2023, Braswell was taken by the Jaguars and six other signed NFL contracts. Overall, 15 Scarlet Knights who played for Schiano at Rutgers entered 2023 training camp active on NFL rosters: DB Tre Avery, DB Christian Braswell, FB Michael Burton, WR Aron Cruickshank, LS Andrew DePaola, OL J.D. DiRenzo, DL Michael Dwumfour, LB Olakunle Fatukasi, DB Christian Izien, TE Tyler Kroft, LB Tyreek Maddox-Williams, WR Bo Melton, RB Isiah Pacheco, WR Sean Ryan and DB Avery Young.

Schiano accepted the head coach position for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in Jan. 2012 and spent two seasons at the helm of the NFL franchise.

Schiano returned to the sidelines as the associate head coach and defensive coordinator, also coaching safeties, at Ohio State in 2016. He coached 10 players who were NFL Draft picks, five of whom were first-round selections during his three seasons. There were three first-round picks from the secondary in the 2017 NFL Draft: Malik Hooker (Colts), Gareon Conley (Raiders) and Marshon Lattimore (Saints). Hooker, a unanimous All-America pick in 2016, was first nationally with three "pick-sixes" and third with seven interceptions that season. The Buckeyes went 36-5 in Schiano's three years as defensive coordinator and 24-3 against Big Ten opponents. That led to two Big Ten titles, plus wins in the 2017 Cotton Bowl and 2019 Rose Bowl. In addition, OSU was No. 6 nationally in total defense under Schiano in 2016 when advancing to the College Football Playoff semifinals. The Buckeyes were one of just three programs to rank in the top 10 in total defense in both 2016 and 2017. Schiano was the No. 2 recruiter in the nation by 247Sports and CBSSports.com for the 2018 signing class.

Schiano served as the defensive coordinator at Miami in 1999 and 2000 before becoming the Rutgers head coach. The Hurricanes posted a 20-5 record during that time, including an 11-1 mark, the No. 2 national ranking and a Sugar Bowl win in 2000. That defense finished fifth nationally in scoring defense (15.5) after ranking 12th in the category the year before (17.2). Following the 2000 season, LB Dan Morgan, who was the 11th overall pick in the NFL Draft, became the first player in college football history to win the Butkus Award (top linebacker), Nagurski Award (college defensive player of the year) and Bednarik Award (top defensive player) in the same year, in addition to being a consensus first-team All-America selection and the Big East Defensive Player of the Year. S Ed Reed was also a consensus first-team All-America honoree in 2000 and would later earn a spot in both the College Football Hall of Fame and Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to his assignment in Miami, Schiano spent three seasons in the NFL with the Chicago Bears (1996-98). The 1997 team placed first in the NFC in third-down defense (31.7 percent), while the 1996 squad climbed from 27th in the NFL to 11th in fewest yards allowed. Schiano was the defensive backfield coach at Penn State from 1991-95 after working as a graduate assistant in 1990. The Nittany Lions picked up 58 wins throughout those years and made six bowl appearances. The 1994 PSU team went 12-0 (8-0 Big Ten) and finished No. 2 in the national rankings after beating Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Schiano previously was a graduate assistant at Rutgers in 1989, beginning his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater, Ramapo High School, the year before. Schiano was a three-year letter-winner at linebacker for Bucknell (1985-87). He was named to the Sporting News All-America Preseason Team in 1987. He served as a team captain his senior year after leading the team with 114 tackles as a junior to earn All-Patriot League honors.

KIRK CIARROCCA

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Kirk Ciarrocca is in his first season back as Rutgers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after being hired by head coach Greg Schiano on Jan. 7, 2023. Ciarrocca, who has over 30 years of coaching experience (19 as an offensive coordinator), returns to Piscataway after serving on Schiano's staff for three seasons and winning two bowl games from 2008-10. He has previously been selected as a semifinalist for the Broyles Award and coached 26 players who had their name called in the NFL Draft (six in the first round).

THE CIARROCCA FILE

Hometown: Lewisberry, Pa.

Alma Mater: Temple, 1990

Wife: Kim

Children: Daughter, Colby; Son, Cade

COACHING HISTORY

2023-present: Rutgers (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

2022: Minnesota (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

2021: West Virginia (offensive analyst)

2020: Penn State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

2017-19: Minnesota (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

2013-16: Western Michigan (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

2012: Delaware (running backs)

2011: Richmond (quarterbacks)

2009-10: Rutgers (co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

2008: Rutgers (wide receivers)

2002-07: Delaware (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks)

2000-01: Penn (wide receivers)

1996-99: Princeton (wide receivers)

1994-95: Western Conn. State (offensive coordinator/quarterbacks/wide receivers)

1993: Delaware Valley (passing game coordinator/wide receivers)

1992: Western Connecticut State (passing game coordinator/wide receivers)

1990-91: Temple (graduate assistant)

RUTGERS

- Ciarrocca first arrived at Rutgers as wide receivers coach in 2008 in a room that included eventual first-round pick Kenny Britt. The wide receiver had eight 100-yard receiving games to set the program record with 1,371 receiving yards in a season, helping the Scarlet Knights to a victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. He would earn All-America honors.
- In 2009, Ciarrocca was promoted by Schiano to co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He helped guide quarterback Tom Savage to Freshman All-America status after setting the Big East record for most passing yards by a true freshman in a season. The Scarlet Knights went 9-4 and defeated UCF in the St. Petersburg Bowl. Others to be drafted in the NFL after being coached by Ciarrocca at RU include offensive lineman Anthony Davis (first round) and wide receiver Mohamed Sanu (third round).

MINNESOTA

- Ciarrocca has been in the Big Ten five of the last six years, most recently helping Minnesota to a nine-win season and a victory in the Pinstripe Bowl in 2022. The Golden Gophers had two from the offense earn All-America status in center John Michael Schmitz (first team), a finalist for the Rimington Trophy, and running back Mohamed Ibrahim (second team). All five linemen plus Ibrahim, who led the nation with 20 rushing touchdowns, and tight end Brevyn Spann-Ford earned All-Big Ten honors. The unit ranked third nationally and first in the Big Ten in both third down conversion percentage (52.1) and time of possession (34:31), while being second in the league in rushing offense (207.3) and least sacks allowed (1.15).
- In 2019, Ciarrocca helped Minnesota to an 11-2 record with seven Big Ten wins and a final Associated Press ranking of No. 10. He was named one of 15 semifinalists for the Broyles Award, which is presented annually to the best assistant coach in college football, as the Golden Gophers joined LSU and Alabama and the only schools in the nation to produce two 1,000-yard receivers (Tyler Johnson and Rashod Bateman) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rodney Smith). Minnesota averaged 432 yards per game (fourth most in school history in the modern era) and 34.1 points per game (third most in school history in the modern era). The unit rushed for 25 touchdowns and threw for 31, which was the first time in school history that the program reached both of those numbers in the same season. Bateman would later be selected in the first round of the 2021 NFL Draft after being voted the Big Ten's Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year in 2019.
- Also in 2019, quarterback Tanner Morgan set school single-season records in passing yards (3,253), touchdown passes (30), completion percentage (66.0), passing yards per game (250.2), touchdown-interception ratio (4.28) and passing efficiency rating (178.7). The performance led to being a finalist for The Manning Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Ciarrocca worked on the West Virginia staff as an analyst in 2021 and as offensive coordinator for Penn State in 2020. The Nittany Lions placed second in the conference in total offense (430.3), third in scoring (29.8), fourth in passing (256.0) and fifth in rushing (174.3) during the pandemic-shortened season. Wide receiver Jahan Dotson led the Big Ten in receiving yards (884) and receiving touchdowns (8) on the way to becoming a first-round pick in the 2022 NFL Draft.

JOE HARASYMIAK DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Joe Harasymiak (hare-uh-SIM-ee-ack) is in his second season as the Rutgers football defensive coordinator in 2023. A native of Waldwick, New Jersey, Harasymiak spent the prior two seasons as co-defensive coordinator at Minnesota and was previously head coach at Maine.

COACHING HISTORY

- 2022-present: Rutgers (defensive coordinator)
- 2020-21: Minnesota (co-defensive coordinator)
- 2018-19: Minnesota (defensive backs/safeties)
- 2016-18: Maine (head coach)
- 2014-15: Maine (defensive coordinator/linebackers)
- 2012-13: Maine (defensive backs)
- 2011: Maine (defensive assistant/defensive backs)
- 2009-10: Springfield College (graduate assistant/wide receivers/quarterbacks)
- 2008: Maine Maritime Academy (assistant coach)

THE HARASYMIAK FILE

Hometown: Waldwick, N.J.
Alma Mater: Springfield College, 2008
Wife: Brittany
Children: Daughters, Sophie and Ellie

RUTGERS

- In 2022, Harasymiak earned a spot as a nominee for the Broyles Award, an honor bestowed to college football's top assistant coaches. Statistically, the unit allowed 46.7 less yards per game compared to 2021, 28.1 less passing yards and 18.6 less rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights posted their best mark in total defense (349.8) in 10 years. The defense had eight players make multiple starts after entering the season with four or less career starts previously.
- RU had seven defenders recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, led by defensive lineman Aaron Lewis collecting third-team honors.

MINNESOTA

- Harasymiak joined the Golden Gophers for the 2018 Quick Lane Bowl and spent the next three full seasons in Minneapolis.
- In 2021, Minnesota ranked third in the nation in total defense (278.8), fourth in first downs defense (202), sixth in scoring defense (17.3), eighth in rushing defense (97.5) and ninth in passing yards allowed (181.2). The Golden

Gophers held eight-straight opponents, and 10 of the last 11, below their total offensive average entering the game. That included limiting West Virginia to 206 yards and six points in a win in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl. The unit saw five players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting.

- In 2019, Harasymiak mentored safeties Antoine Winfield Jr., Jordan Howden and Chris Williamson. Winfield led Minnesota with 88 tackles and was named a unanimous All-American and Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year. Howden and Williamson finished tied for fourth on the team with 57 tackles and each produced critical interceptions during the season. The Gophers ended the year with 14 interceptions, which ranked second in the Big Ten. Winfield Jr. went on to be drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and earned a spot in the Pro Bowl.

MAINE

- Harasymiak served as head coach at Maine from 2016-18. He guided the Black Bears to an overall record of 20-15 and a 15-9 mark in the Colonial Athletic Association.
- In 2018, he led the Black Bears to a 10-4 overall record, a 7-1 conference mark and a CAA championship. Maine advanced to its first Football Championship Subdivision national semifinal in school history under his guidance. Harasymiak earned FCS Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.
- Harasymiak previously served as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach at Maine in 2011 and then coached the defensive backs from 2012-13. He was promoted to defensive coordinator and coached the linebackers from 2014-15. Harasymiak was named interim head coach in Nov. 2015 and assumed head coaching duties in Jan. 2016.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Prior to his time at Maine, he served as a graduate assistant coach with the wide receivers and quarterbacks at his alma mater, Springfield College. He was also an assistant coach at Maine Maritime Academy in 2008.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- Harasymiak earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield College in 2008 and played for the Pride from 2004-07. He served as team captain in 2007.

MARK ORPHEY

CORNERBACKS

Mark Orphey (or-fay) is in his second season as the Rutgers cornerbacks coach in 2023. The Houston native arrived in Piscataway after spending the 2021 season as a senior defensive analyst for national runner-up Alabama. He has been part of five bowl games and the FCS playoffs, in addition to the College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

THE ORPHEY FILE

Hometown: Houston, Texas
Alma Mater: Texas Southern, 2010

COACHING HISTORY

2022-present: Rutgers (cornerbacks)
 2021: Alabama (senior defensive analyst)
 2019-20: Utah State (secondary)
 2017-18: Montana State (secondary)
 2014-16: South Carolina (quality control)
 2013: South Carolina (defensive graduate assistant)
 2011-12: Texas Southern (cornerbacks)

RUTGERS

- In 2022, Orphey helped the defense improve by allowing 46.7 less yards per game compared to 2021, 28.1 less passing yards and 18.6 less rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights posted their best mark in total defense (349.8) in 10 years.
- The Scarlet Knights saw two cornerbacks earn honorable mention All-Big Ten honors in Christian Braswell (third in the Big Ten with 1.17 passes defended per game) and Max Melton (10 pass breakups, two interceptions and a nation-leading three blocked punts).

ALABAMA

- In 2021, Orphey worked on head coach Nick Saban's staff helping to develop the defensive game plan and assisting with defensive backs. The Crimson Tide won the SEC Championship Game over Georgia, defeated Cincinnati in the Cotton Bowl Classic and advanced to the CFP National Championship Game.

UTAH STATE

- Orphey served two seasons as the secondary coach (2019-20).

- In 2020, helped safety Shaq Bond earn honorable mention All-Mountain West for the second-straight season, totaling 7.8 tackles per game with three pass breakups and an interception. The defense ranked 35th nationally with 2.67 sacks per game.
- In 2019, the Aggies' defense forced 24 turnovers (13 fumbles, 11 interceptions) to rank second in the Mountain West and 15th in the nation. The team appeared in the Frisco Bowl. Safety Troy Lefeged Jr. led the team with 104 tackles, adding four pass breakups, three forced fumble and two fumble recoveries.

MONTANA STATE

- During two seasons at Montana State (2017-18), Orphey coached four players to all-conference honors (Big Sky) in safety Jahque Allyn (2018), cornerback Greg Filer (2018), safety Brayden Konkol (2018) and safety Bryson McCabe (2017).
- During the 2018 season, helped the Bobcats to an 8-5 record, including a 5-3 mark in the Big Sky Conference, and an appearance in the NCAA FCS Playoffs for the first time since 2014. MSU also advanced to the second round of the playoffs for the first time since 2012. The defensive backs produced nine interceptions and six forced fumbles, finishing in the top half of the league in interceptions (12), passing yards allowed (213.5 yards per game) and passing efficiency defense (124.16).
- In 2017, molded a youthful group of cornerbacks into a secondary that finished fifth in the Big Sky Conference in pass defense, allowing 239.5 yards per game.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Orphey spent four seasons at South Carolina, serving as a quality control assistant (2013) and defensive graduate assistant (2014-16). Helped the team to three bowl games (2013 Capital One Bowl, 2014 Independence Bowl, 2016 Birmingham Bowl) and the team's third-straight 11-win season in 2013. Coached four players to all-conference honors in Chris Lammons (2015), Al Harris Jr. (2015), Brison Williams (2013) and Victor Hampton (2013).
- Began collegiate coaching career at his alma mater as the cornerbacks coach at Texas Southern. During two seasons with the Tigers (2011-12), mentored Tray Walker to all-conference and All-America honors in 2012, and Jerome Thomas to all-conference status in 2011.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- A three-year starter at cornerback at Texas Southern, Orphey earned all-Southwestern Athletic Conference honors as a junior and senior (2009-10).
- A native of Houston, graduated from Texas Southern in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and earned his master's degree from South Carolina in 2015 in health information technology.

RUTGERS

- Breaking in a linebacker unit with a combined seven career starts entering the season, the defense improved by allowing 46.7 less yards per game compared to 2021, 28.1 less passing yards and 18.6 less rushing yards. The Scarlet Knights posted their best mark in total defense (349.8) in 10 years.
- Deion Jennings earned honorable mention All-Big Ten and collected the Homer Hazel Award as the team's most valuable player after posting 91 tackles with 8.5 for loss and six pass breakups. The 8.3 tackles per game ranked seventh in the Big Ten.

JAMES MADISON

- Hetherman worked three seasons at James Madison as defensive coordinator (2019-21). JMU's defense ranked as one of the nation's best each season, placing in the top 10 in both total defense and scoring defense all three years.
- Picked up the title of associate head coach prior to the 2021 season and earned AFCA FCS Assistant Coach of the Year. The Dukes posted the No.

2-ranked defense in the nation, allowing just 275.2 yards per game, also ranking first nationally in turnovers forced (31), fifth in third-down defense (27.2 percent), seventh in scoring defense (15.4) and eighth in rushing defense (89.0). A total of four defensive players were recognized as 2021 All-Americans, with six being named All-CAA. James Madison ended with a 12-2 record and advanced to the FCS semifinals.

- A 2020 selection to the AFCA's 35 Under 35 Leadership Institute, JMU's defense ranked third in the FCS in rush defense (72.4) and interceptions (12) in the spring of 2021, while ranking fifth in total defense (243.4), sixth in pass efficiency defense (100.74) and eighth in scoring defense (16.5). The team finished 7-1.
- In his first season with the Dukes, JMU led the FCS in total defense (270.2), while ranking third in both scoring defense (15.7) and against the run (74.8). The defense also ranked third nationally in third-down defense (30 percent), fifth in tackles-for-loss (8.5), sixth in pass efficiency defense (111.83), seventh in interceptions (17), 11th in takeaways (26) and 12th in sacks (2.94). Four defenders earned All-America accolades in 2019, with eight on the All-CAA team, including five on the first team. The Dukes went 14-2 and advanced to the FCS title game.

MAINE

- Hetherman came to JMU after spending the previous four seasons at CAA foe Maine (2015-18), where he led the defensive line and served as the defensive coordinator for three of his four seasons in Orono.
- Quickly turned Maine into a defensive power in the FCS, which included leading the league in six categories in 2018, highlighted by the FCS-leading rushing defense (79.2). Maine ranked second nationally in sacks (47). The Black Bears also led the CAA in yards per carry allowed (2.4), interceptions (18), fumble recoveries (13) and fumbles for a touchdown (3), while ranking second in third-down defense (28.4 percent) and fourth in total defense (313.1).
- Hetherman guided six Maine defenders to All-CAA status, with two claiming All-America laurels.
- In 2017, Maine led the CAA on third down, allowing the opposition to a 27 percent success rate. During his first year leading Maine's defense, he helped mentor all-conference lineman Pat Ricard to the NFL after he ranked second in the conference in tackles-for-loss and fifth in sacks. Maine ranked third in the league in pass defense at 217.1 yards per game allowed.

2010: Rutgers (defensive assistant)

2009: Rutgers (player development)

2007-08: Albright College (tight ends/assistant recruiting coordinator)

2006: Concordia Academy (assistant varsity coach)

RUTGERS

- Aurich moved to tight ends coach in 2023.
- Coached running backs in 2022, helping the team put together a 96-yard drive all on the ground to come back and defeat Boston College. Saw Kyle Monangai post 162 rushing yards at Michigan State, the most by a Scarlet Knight in a Big Ten game. Samuel Brown V developed into one of the top-10 true freshman running backs nationally by rushing yards.
- Served as offensive line coach in 2020 and 2021.
- Rutgers ranked fifth in the Big Ten in 2021 with only 1.69 sacks allowed per game.
- Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season in 2020. The Scarlet Knights scored at least 20 points in eight games after reaching the mark five times the previous four seasons and 12 times in the first 52 Big Ten games. The 26.7 points per game ranked eighth in the Big Ten, improving from No. 14 the preceding season.
- Rutgers finished as the fourth-most improved team in the nation by scoring offense (+13.4 points per game). The Scarlet Knights scored 81 more points than in 2019 (playing three fewer games), the sixth-best improvement in the nation in total points scored (the five higher teams all played 12 games). In addition, RU was the most improved in the Big Ten in total touchdowns scored (+12) and offensive touchdowns (+9).
- Molded an offensive line that entered 2020 with only one returning starter, and of the six other linemen who made starts, three had never started an FBS game, two had less than two starts and another had only four. Helped left tackle Raiqwon O'Neal (media) and right tackle Reggie Sutton (coaches) both earn All-Big Ten honorable mention.

PRINCETON

- Aurich was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2019, after spending the previous three seasons (2016-18) as offensive line coach at Princeton.
- In his first season leading the offense, Aurich guided the Tigers to a second-ranked rushing offense with 164.7 yards per game and ranked third in scoring offense, total offense and passing offense. Seven players on the Tigers' offense earned All-Ivy League accolades, including first-team selection Alex Deters.
- In 2018, Princeton boasted the top rushing offense in the conference with 295.5 yards per game and the second-best passing offense at 241.3 passing yards. The offensive line tied for second in the Ivy for the fewest sacks allowed that season. During a perfect 10-0 season, the Tigers led the FCS in scoring offense with 47.0 points per game and finished second in total offense and sixth in rushing offense. The offense broke its previous 2013 record to become the highest scoring offense in league history. Three linemen earned all-league recognition, including first-team honors for both George Attea and Reilly Radosevich.
- Helped 12 linemen to All-Ivy League honors, including Mitchell Sweigart, who became the first Tiger since 2001 to receive back-to-back First Team All-Ivy League selection in 2017.
- During a two-year span from 2017-18, Princeton ranked in the top 15 in the country in fewest sacks allowed and the Tigers were in the top five in the country with the fewest tackles-for-loss allowed.
- In 2017, elevated to associate head coach and continued to serve as the program's recruiting coordinator.
- Princeton captured three Ivy League Championships during his tenure with the Tigers and was part of an offensive staff that averaged 36.9 points per game, the program's highest offensive output over a six-year stretch.
- Took over the offensive line prior to the 2016 season, and he helped guide Princeton to an unprecedented three-year run. In 2016, he helped Princeton win the Ivy League title and produce the league's leading scoring (34.6), total (415.5), and rushing (183.2) units.

Children: Sons, Henry, William and Richard; Daughters, Kate and Maggie

RUTGERS

- Brock served as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach for the Scarlet Knights in 2021, helping the team to a Big East championship. The unit saw four players earn All-Big East honors, including wide receiver Brandon Coleman, who tied the school record for single-season receiving touchdowns (10).

ATLANTA FALCONS

- Brock served a five-year stint in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons (2017-21), focusing on wide receivers.
- In 2020, wide receiver Calvin Ridley recorded single-season career highs in receptions (90) and receiving yards (1,374), while tallying a team-high nine touchdown receptions to earn All-Pro honors. The first-round pick eclipsed 100 receiving yards in eight games in 2020, the most in the NFL and the third-most in a single season in franchise history.
- Brock also coached perennial All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection Julio Jones, who led the NFL with 1,677 receiving yards in 2018. Former Scarlet Knight

Mohamed Sanu (838) and Ridley (821) also topped 800 receiving yards that season, as the position group combined for 25 receiving touchdowns. Ridley led rookies in receiving yards and touchdowns (10).

DELAWARE

- Prior to moving to the NFL, Brock served as head coach at Delaware for four seasons (2013-16). During his tenure, seven Blue Hen players claimed All-America honors, 21 were named All-CAA and over 50 earned CAA All-Academic honors. In addition, five of his players signed professionally, led by defensive lineman Zach Kerr (Indianapolis), tight end Nick Boyle (Baltimore), offensive lineman Erle Ladson (Cleveland) and defensive back Travis Hawkins (New England) in the NFL, and running back Andrew Pierce (Tri-City) in the IFL.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Prior to Rutgers, Brock's coaching stops at the collegiate level included Boston College (2009-11), Kansas State (2007-08), North Carolina (2005-06), Temple (2002-04) and Hofstra (1995-01). He was offensive coordinator for seven of those seasons and mentored numerous NFL standouts, including wide receivers Jordy Nelson, Marques Colston and Hakeem Nicks.
- Spent the 2008 season as Kansas State's offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach after coaching the wideouts in 2007. Kansas State ranked 18th nationally in passing (269.6) and 19th in scoring offense (34.9) under Brock's leadership. As offensive coordinator at Kansas State, Brock spearheaded a Wildcat offense that produced the 2008 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year in wide receiver Brandon Banks and Kansas State's most prolific passer in school history in quarterback Josh Freeman. Banks set a Wildcat junior record with 67 receptions and 1,049 yards, while Freeman became Kansas State's career leader in passing attempts, completions, yards, touchdowns and total offense in 2008.

DAMIERE SHAW

RUNNING BACKS

Damiere Shaw is in his fourth season at Rutgers and first as running backs coach in 2023. A native of Chester, Pennsylvania, Shaw spent last season as wide receivers coach after joining the Scarlet Knights as the director of player development. He has previous coaching experience with the Carolina Panthers and at Fordham, Baylor and Temple, and was named to 247Sports 30Under30 list in 2022.

THE SHAW FILE

2020-21: Rutgers (director of player development)

2020: Carolina Panthers (assistant wide receivers coach)

2019: Fordham (wide receivers)

2017-18: Baylor (offensive quality control)

2016: Temple (wide receivers graduate assistant)

2013-15: Temple (student assistant)

RUTGERS

- Shaw takes over as running backs coach in 2023.
- Elevated to wide receivers coach prior to spring practice in 2022. Coached Sean Ryan, who led the Big Ten with 16.9 yards per reception.
- A member of the 2022 247Sports 30Under30 list, which identifies 30 rising stars in the coaching and personnel space under the age of 30.
- Joining the Scarlet Knights in 2020, spearheaded initiatives as the director of player development in preparing student-athletes for personal, academic and athletic success. That included the creation of Chop4Change to spread a message of unity and equality amidst the national social justice discussion, while registering every student-athlete on the team to vote in the 2020 election. The program also involves giving back to the community through various forms.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Shaw was hired as assistant wide receivers coach for the Carolina Panthers in the winter of 2020.
- As the wide receivers coach at Fordham in 2019, mentored three wideouts to over 600 receiving yards, the only team in the Patriot League to achieve the feat. That included rookie DeQuece Carter, who broke the school record for receptions (53) and receiving yards (723) by a freshman. Overall, the Rams paced the conference in total offense and scoring offense, placing second in passing offense.
- Spent the 2017 and 2018 seasons as an offensive quality control coach for head coach Matt Rhule at Baylor. The job included assisting with coaching the wide receivers, identifying opposing team's coverages and personnel tendencies on game day, and breaking down opposing team's game film during the week. Shaw helped develop Jalen Hurd, a third-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers and the 2018 Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year. He also mentored Denzel Mims, who finished third in school history in touchdowns, fifth in receptions and sixth in receiving yards. The Bears won the 2018 Texas Bowl over Vanderbilt.
- Worked one season as a graduate assistant coach for Temple under Rhule in 2016, assisting with the wide receivers. The Owls won the American Athletic Conference championship that season.
- Made the transition from player to coach following an injury as a freshman. He served as a student assistant focusing on wide receivers with the Owls for three seasons from 2013-15. During the tenure, Shaw worked closely with Robby Anderson, who posted the second-most receiving yards in program history, and Keith Kirkwood, both NFL receivers.

COACHING STAFF

PAT FLAHERTY OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Flaherty is in his first season back as the Scarlet Knights' offensive line coach in 2023. A two-time Super Bowl champion with the New York Giants, Flaherty has been a position coach on five division-winning teams in the NFL and brings over two decades of experience at both the professional and collegiate levels. That includes a previous eight-year stint as offensive line coach for the Scarlet Knights (1984-91).

COACHING HISTORY

2023-present: Rutgers (offensive line)
2022: Rutgers (consultant)
2021: New York Giants (consultant)

1984-91: Rutgers (offensive line)
1982-83: Penn State (assistant offensive line)
1980-81: East Stroudsburg (offensive line)
1978-80: Delone Catholic HS (football and basketball assistant)

THE FLAHERTY FILE

Hometown: McSherrystown, Pa.
Alma Mater: East Stroudsburg, 1978
Wife: Lynne
Children: Son, Shawn; Daughter, Colleen

RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Flaherty joins the on-field coaching staff after spending last season (2022) as a consultant for the Scarlet Knights, also serving in that role for the Giants in 2021 and as an analyst at Penn State prior (2019-20).

NEW YORK GIANTS

- Flaherty was the offensive line coach for the Giants for 12 seasons (2004-15), helping the offense finish in the top 10 in the NFL six times and winning two Super Bowls (XLII, XLVI). The team had a 1,000-yard rusher in seven seasons, including the three best individual rushing seasons in team history (Tiki Barber, 2004-06). His unit, anchored by Pro Bowl selections David Diehl, Shaun O'Hara and Chris Snee, also protected quarterback Eli Manning, who started 183 consecutive games during Flaherty's tenure with the franchise and passed for 4,000-plus yards on five occasions.
- In 2015, the Giants totaled 5,952 net yards, the third-most in franchise history. Flaherty's pass-blocking unit surrendered just 27 sacks, tied for the fourth fewest in the league. Manning set the franchise record for single-season completions (387). He also passed for 4,432 yards and 35 touchdowns, the second-best marks in team history. That followed a 2014 season that saw the Giants total 5,875 net yards, the fifth-most in team history.

- In 2012, the unit led the NFL with just 20 sacks allowed and the Giants scored 429 points, the second-most in franchise history. Snee was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl, all coming under Flaherty's guidance.
- Helped the Giants overcome the retirements of two long-time offensive linemen (Rich Seubert and O'Hara) in 2011 to win Super Bowl XLVI over New England. Despite the offensive line using five different starting lineups that season, the offense set franchise records with 6,161 total yards and 4,734 net passing yards. They allowed just 28 sacks, the seventh fewest in the league.
- In 2010, the Giants set a franchise record with just 16 sacks allowed, tied for the best mark in the league. They went five consecutive games without allowing a sack, which was a team record. The Giants were one of just two NFL teams to have two running backs total at least 800 rushing yards (Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs). The offensive line accomplished all of this despite using six different starting lineups throughout the season due to injuries.
- Diehl was also selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2009 season, giving the Giants three players from the position group participating in the game in the same season. It was the first time the franchise had done that since 1962. The team also averaged 25.1 points per game, ranking eighth in the NFL that season.
- The 2008 Giants set a franchise record and led the NFL with 2,518 rushing yards. It marked the first time since 1993 the team had led the league in rushing. Both Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) rushed for 1,000-plus yards, becoming just the fourth set of running back teammates to do that in the same season in NFL history.
- The Giants won Super Bowl XLII at the end of the 2007 season over the previously unbeaten Patriots.
- In Flaherty's first three seasons (2004-06) with New York, the Giants had one of the best rushing attacks in the NFL led by Barber. He rushed for 1,000-plus yards in all three seasons, including a franchise record of 1,860 rushing yards in 2005. Barber's 1,662 rushing yards in 2006 were fourth in the NFL and second in team history, while his 1,518 rushing yards in 2004 were fifth in the NFL. The Giants were among the NFL's top-10 in rushing and fewest sacks allowed in both 2005 and 2006.

RUTGERS

- The Scarlet Knights saw eight players earn All-Big Ten honors in 2022.
- In 2021, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. With just nine days' notice, Rutgers played in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest. Five Scarlet Knights were signed by NFL teams following the season, with WR Bo Melton (Seahawks) and RB Isiah Pacheco (Chiefs) both drafted.
- The 2020 season presented unforeseen challenges dealing with the coronavirus pandemic. The Scarlet Knights made vast improvements in the weight room in all areas despite the obstacles faced.
- Rutgers was just one of two teams in the Big Ten to play all scheduled games. With a commitment to player and culture development, the Scarlet Knights had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. RU led the Big Ten and ranked 11th nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game, an increase of 3.2 from the previous year.

nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game, an increase of 3.2 from the previous year.

- Butler served as the Scarlet Knights' head football strength and conditioning coach throughout the first 11 years under Schiano's direction, while also adding the duties of assistant athletic director for strength and conditioning over the last seven years.
- Ninety Scarlet Knights have gone on to sign NFL contracts after developing through Butler's system. Many return in the offseason to work out with Butler at Rutgers.
- During his tenure at Rutgers, Butler designed the school's state-of-the-art, 15,500-square-foot strength and conditioning facility, where he incorporated the latest technologies, including digital video analysis, a 60-yard FieldTurf track and other amenities. In March of 2007, Butler was recognized as Samson's Division I-A Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the American Football Monthly.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

- Butler followed Schiano to the NFL and spent two seasons (2012-13) as the head strength and conditioning coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Prior to joining the Scarlet Knights, Butler served as the director of speed, strength and conditioning at Dartmouth for five years (1996-2000).
- Before his stint at Dartmouth, Butler began his coaching career at East Carolina University where he worked in the strength and conditioning department as a graduate assistant for three years while earning his master's degree (1992-1994). He was then promoted to assistant director of strength and conditioning (1995).
- Worked three years (2017-19) on the staff at IMG Academy, including coaching All-Pro left tackle Jordan Mailata of the Philadelphia Eagles.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- Butler earned a degree in mechanical engineering from Bucknell in 1991, where he was a three-year starter and two-time All-American tackle before playing two seasons on the professional level (New York Giants and Montreal Machine).
- A 1987 graduate of Hillsborough High School, excelling in football and baseball, and inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2013.

RUTGERS

- Susan served as interim tight ends coach for the last six games of the 2022 season.
- The Scarlet Knights continued to make progress in 2021 with the first 3-0 start since 2012. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. With just nine days' notice, Rutgers played in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest.
- During the unprecedented 2020 season, the Scarlet Knights matched the program high with three Big Ten victories. With a commitment to player and culture development, RU had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the conference. Rutgers posted a program-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season, with eight games of at least 20 points after reaching the mark only five times in the prior four years. The defense had at least one takeaway in 8-of-9 games with 19 overall, the most since 2012, and led the league with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.

- Spent nine previous seasons with the Scarlet Knights from 2001-09, helping the program to five consecutive bowl appearances and four bowl championships.
- Started off as offensive line coach in 2001 on Schiano's original staff before moving to tight ends in 2003 and adding the title of recruiting coordinator in 2004. Susan was integral in securing several highly-touted and nationally-ranked recruiting classes, including the 2009 group that ranked in the ESPN.com Top 25. He also mentored Clark Harris, a three-time All-Big East selection who completed his 15th NFL season in 2022.

BUCKNELL

- Susan served as special assistant to the director of athletics & recreation at Bucknell in 2019 after resigning as head football coach following the 2018 season. He led the Bison for nine seasons, with a high-water mark of 8-3 in 2014 to earn recognition as the Patriot League Coach of the Year.
- During his tenure as head coach at Bucknell, Susan's players accounted for 69 All-Patriot League accolades, including a pair of four-year honorees in Julián Davenport and Abdullah Anderson, both of whom are now competing in the NFL. Susan also coached four Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year, and his 2017 team set a record with 48 Patriot League Academic Honor Roll selections.

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Before his time at Rutgers, Susan spent one year as the head coach at Davidson in 2000. He led the Wildcats to a 10-0 record, a single-season record for wins and the only undefeated mark in program history. Susan was named the Coach of the Year by the Division I-AA Independents Sports Information Directors Association. Additionally, he received a Presidential Citation from the University of Delaware for outstanding achievement.
- At Princeton, served as both the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for a decade. In addition to recruiting duties at the Ivy League institution, he organized and implemented year-round strength and conditioning programs, developed and coordinated the spring football clinic and coordinated travel plans for away games.
- Initial tour of duty at Bucknell began in June 1981. From 1981 through 1988, he oversaw the offensive line and served as strength coach. Prior to the 1989 campaign, Susan was promoted to assistant head coach while keeping his duties with the offensive line. During that time, he recruited Schiano, who served as a co-captain as a senior in 1987, to Bucknell.

BOB FRASER

SENIOR ANALYST

Bob Fraser is in his fourth season back at Rutgers and 14th overall "On the Banks" in 2023. Bringing over 35 seasons of coaching experience, Fraser is in his fourth stint on the Scarlet Knights' staff. He first joined the program in 1987 as a graduate assistant before returning from 2006-11 in various capacities, including defensive coordinator. Fraser served as the RU linebackers coach in 2014 and 2015. Overall, Fraser has been part of seven Rutgers bowl trips, including five wins.

RUTGERS: 2020-PRESENT

- Fraser serves as senior analyst after working as senior advisor in 2022, a season that saw Rutgers post its best mark in total defense in 10 years. He coached linebackers in 2020 and 2021.
- Saw linebackers Olakunle Fatukasi (Buccaneers) and Tyreek Maddox-Williams (Chargers) both signed by NFL teams. Fatukasi earned Third Team All-Big Ten honors and was picked as national semifinalist for the Butkus Award for the second-straight season.
- Rutgers gained 19 turnovers in 2020, most in a season since 2012, and 10 more than forced the previous season. That included at least one takeaway in eight games, multiple in four games and at least four two times. Helped the team establish a +5 turnover margin, its best in a Big Ten season.
- Rutgers led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 nationally with 7.8 tackles-for-loss per game.
- Helped linebacker Olakunle Fatukasi, one of 16 national semifinalists for the Butkus Award, earn First Team All-Big Ten after leading the conference with 101 tackles. Became first Rutgers defensive player to garner First Team All-Big Ten accolades. Average of 11.2 tackles per game ranked ninth nationally, first in the league and most by a Scarlet Knight since 1999. Also ranked second in the Big Ten with 11.0 tackles-for-loss, adding two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and a pass breakup.

- Linebacker Tyshon Fogg collected honorable mention All-Big Ten after posting 70 tackles with 4.5 for loss.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Fraser spent the 2019 season as a coaching assistant for the New England Patriots, his third year in the NFL, after working 2016-18 as a quality control coach on the same staff as Schiano at Ohio State. The Buckeyes won two Big Ten championships in those three seasons, capping with a victory in the 2019 Rose Bowl.

RUTGERS: 2014-15

- Fraser was part of Rutgers' transition to the Big Ten, helping the team win eight games and the Quick Lane Bowl in 2014.
- Linebacker Steve Longa led the team with 102 tackles and added 117 the following season to finish with 342 career stops, eighth-most in program history. Longa signed with the Detroit Lions.

TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS

- Fraser spent two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including serving as the assistant defensive coordinator in 2013. During that season, the Buccaneers placed two players on the Associated Press All-Pro First Team in defensive tackle Gerald McCoy and outside linebacker Lavonte David, a first for the franchise since 2005.

HOUSTON TEXANS

- In 2019, Perry's group helped the Texans tie a team record for most overall touchdowns scored (46) in a single season (2009 and 2012) and set franchise records for highest redzone touchdown percentage (64.2) and fewest three-and-outs (24). Houston also tallied 27 receptions of 30-or-more yards in 2019, which tied for third in the NFL. DeAndre Hopkins was named an Associated Press NFL All-Pro First Team selection for a third-straight season and earned his third-straight Pro Bowl nod after leading the team with 104 receptions, 1,165 yards and seven touchdowns.
- In 2018, the Texans captured an AFC South title with an 11-5 record, with rookie Keke Coutee adding to the unit by hauling in 11 passes for 109 yards in his NFL debut, marking the most receptions by a rookie wideout in an NFL debut since the NFL/AFL merger.
- As tight ends coach from 2014-16, Perry helped the Texans win back-to-back AFC South division championships in 2015-16 and post three-straight winning seasons. Texans' tight ends had the most productive season in franchise history in 2016. Perry's unit improved by NFL-bests of 74 receptions and 4.6 receptions per game over its 2015 totals and finished with second-best increases in receiving yards (646) and receiving yards per game (40.4).

PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

- Before joining the Texans, Perry was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Delaware (2013).
- Perry served as head coach at NCAA Division II Merrimack College for five seasons (2008-12), where he led the Warriors to a record of 29-21 and the 2009 Northeast-10 title. During his tenure, Merrimack produced six All-Americans and two Northeast-10 Conference Players of the Year. Perry's up-tempo, high-scoring offense was one of the best in the league for all five of his seasons on campus, as Merrimack won the Northeast-10 Championship in 2009. The team ranked second in the nation in total offense in 2012 at 525.8 yards per game and finished in the top 10 in 2009 (fourth), 2010 (ninth) and 2011 (seventh).
- Perry began his coaching career as running backs coach at Northeastern in 1993, and later served as receivers coach at Brown (1994-96). He also had stops as receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at New Hampshire (1997-98), offensive coordinator at Dartmouth (1999-2004), associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at Georgetown (2005), offensive coordinator at Hofstra (2006) and associate head coach and quarterbacks coach at New Hampshire (2007).

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

- A 1992 graduate of New Hampshire, Perry enjoyed a standout career as a football and basketball player for the Wildcats. He was a four-year starter in football, served as team captain as a senior, and was a two-time All-Yankee Conference selection while setting several receiving records.

AUSTIN TRIGLIA

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Austin Triglia is in his third season with Rutgers football and first as a graduate assistant. He previously served as a defensive assistant in 2022 and in player development for the Scarlet Knights in 2021.

Triglia played collegiately at Bentley University, where he appeared in 39 career games at running back for the Falcons from 2016-20. Triglia amassed more than 800 total yards of offense and returned kickoffs during his time at Bentley. Triglia graduated from Bentley in 2021 with his bachelor's degree in economics and finance.

KAYON WHITAKER

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Kayon Whitaker begins his second season with Rutgers football and first as a graduate assistant in 2023. Whitaker previously served as a player development assistant for the Scarlet Knights during the 2022 campaign.

Prior to his arrival "On the Banks," Whitaker worked as defensive quality control and assistant operations at Maine in 2021. Whitaker was a standout defensive lineman at Maine, appearing in 40 career games for the Black Bears from 2016-19. Whitaker finished his collegiate career with 183 tackles, 45.5 tackles-for-loss, 27 sacks and seven forced fumbles, earning all-conference laurels three times. As a senior in 2019, Whitaker produced 20 stops in the backfield with nine sacks en route to First Team All-CAA accolades and was named the team's most outstanding defensive player.

A native of Washington, D.C., Whitaker earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Maine in 2019.

CINJUN ERSKINE

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Cinjun Erskine is in his second season with Rutgers football and first as a graduate assistant in 2023. Erskine previously served as a player development assistant for the Scarlet Knights during the 2022 season.

Prior to Rutgers, Erskine worked at Del Valle High School in Austin, Texas, where he was the team's defensive coordinator in 2021. Erskine also worked as an assistant coach at IMG Academy (2020) in Bradenton, Florida, and at the College of Saint Scholastica (2019) in Duluth, Minnesota.

As an undergraduate at Bucknell, Erskine was a student assistant from 2016-18 and played for the Bison as a freshman in 2015 before suffering a career-ending injury. Erskine earned the Bobby Pangburn Memorial Award in recognition for his commitment, dedication and unqualified friendship to the program.

A native of Barnegat, New Jersey, Erskine earned his bachelor's degree in education from Bucknell in 2019.

ALEXANDER OFFICER

GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Alexander Officer begins his first season with Rutgers football as a graduate assistant in 2023.

Over the summer, Officer was one of six coaches from across the country selected by the Chicago Bears to partake in the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship. The program's objective is to use NFL clubs' training camps to give coaches and scouts opportunities to observe, participate, gain experience and ultimately gain a full-time NFL coaching position.

Officer spent the past three seasons (2020-22) as a graduate assistant at Pittsburgh, working with the Panthers' offensive line. In 2021, Pitt went 11-3 and captured the ACC championship over Wake Forest, finishing the season with a school-record 41.4 points and 486.6 yards per game with Officer on staff.

A four-year starter on Pitt's offensive line, Officer played in 51 career games for the Panthers from 2014-17, making 48 starts. Officer was selected to play in the 2018 NFLPA Collegiate Bowl and played both center and guard during his collegiate career.

A native of Rochester, New York, Officer earned his bachelor's degree in social sciences from Pittsburgh in 2017.

JORDAN HUXTABLE QUALITY CONTROL

Jordan Huxtable is in his fifth season with the Scarlet Knights. He has worked as a defensive assistant and in quality control.

Huxtable spent the 2018 season as an assistant defensive backs coach at Morehead State. Huxtable helped Sayyid Kanu earn honorable mention All-Pioneer honors after the senior corner produced a team-best 62 tackles along with a team-high six pass breakups and two interceptions.

Prior to his arrival at Morehead State, Huxtable worked the 2017 season on the coaching staff at Elmhurst College and the 2016 campaign as a coaching intern at Northern Illinois. At NIU, Huxtable assisted with the cornerbacks.

The St. Charles, Illinois, native played football at the University of Connecticut and Northern Illinois before he closed out his collegiate career at Illinois State. Huxtable earned his bachelor's degree in university studies from Illinois State in 2016.

NASIR JONES QUALITY CONTROL

Nasir Jones is in his second season with Rutgers football in 2023. Jones previously worked in player development during the 2022 campaign.

Jones enjoyed a standout collegiate career at Rhode Island, where he appeared in 44 games at defensive back and linebacker for the Rams from 2015-18. In four seasons at URI, Jones recorded 160 tackles, 15 passes defended, 11.5 tackles-for-loss and two interceptions. Jones moved to linebacker as a senior and led the team in tackles with 78 in 2018.

A native of Newark, New Jersey, Jones earned his bachelor's degree in human development and family studies from Rhode Island in 2018.

JARED KEYTE QUALITY CONTROL

Jared Keyte is in his first season back with Rutgers football in 2023. Keyte, who also worked with the Scarlet Knights in 2015, begins his second stint "On the Banks" after seven years on staff (2016-22) at Maine.

Keyte served as the Black Bears' defensive coordinator in 2022 and worked as the program's special teams coordinator from 2018-21. During his tenure, Keyte coached Maine's linebackers (2018, 2021) and safeties (2019-21).

As the program's special team's coordinator in 2021, Keyte helped the Black Bears' special teams unit to numerous top rankings, both in the conference and nationally. Maine led the CAA and ranked third nationally in blocked kicks, ranked second in the CAA and fifth nationally in kickoff return average and checked in third in the conference in punt coverage.

Keyte helped the Black Bears to a historic run to the NCAA Final Four in 2018, playing a part in Maine's defensive game planning. With Keyte on staff, Maine produced the top rushing defense in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

Prior to his arrival at Maine, Keyte served as a defensive quality control coach at Rutgers in 2015. That season, Keyte worked specifically with the linebackers, led by All-Big Ten selection Steve Longa, who finished fifth in the nation in solo tackles.

Keyte served as a graduate assistant at Springfield College coaching defensive backs in 2013 and working with the linebackers, while serving as co-defensive coordinator in 2014.

In 2012, Keyte coached the quarterbacks at Utica College after playing the same position for four years. He assisted in coaching a group that led the league in scoring offense, total offense, passing touchdowns, passing efficiency and saw quarterback Andrew Benkwitt named Empire 8 Player of the Year.

A native of Holland Patent, New York, Keyte earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Utica in 2012. Keyte was a four-year letterwinner for the Pioneers at quarterback.

CHARLIE NOONAN

QUALITY CONTROL

A former Rutgers football team captain along the defensive line, Charlie Noonan is in his fourth season back with the Scarlet Knights. Noonan spent 2019 on staff at Lehigh as the Mountain Hawks' linebackers coach and run defensive coordinator.

With the help of Noonan, Lehigh produced the top rushing defense in the Patriot League in 2019. Linebacker Keith Woetzel earned Second Team All-America and First Team All-Patriot League accolades for the Mountain Hawks, as he led the conference in tackles (118), sacks (12) and tackles-for-loss (17.5).

Noonan joined Lehigh from Holy Cross, where he spent four seasons (2015-18) as a defensive line coach. During his first season with the Crusaders, Noonan worked with defensive end Dewayne Cameron, who earned First Team All-Patriot League honors twice, as well as a spot on the All-New England First Team. In his second season at Holy Cross in 2016, defensive end Ryan Smith led the Patriot League with 12 sacks. In 2017, his defense earned 23 sacks for 154 yards and forced 12 fumbles, and in 2018, Noonan mentored Teddy Copsis to First Team All-Patriot League accolades.

Before his appointment at Holy Cross, Noonan spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Rutgers from 2013-14. Noonan mentored All-Big Ten selection Kemoko Turay, who was named a Freshman All-American after leading the team with 7.5 sacks during the 2014 campaign. In 2013, RU allowed just 100.8 rushing yards per game, the fourth-best mark in the country.

Noonan also worked at Division III Thiel College (Pa.) in 2012. Competing in the Presidents' Athletic Conference, Thiel's defense finished its season first in the league in both sacks and rushing defense, while finishing in second place in tackles-for-loss and total defense. In 2011, Noonan served as a volunteer assistant coach at the Haverford School (Pa.), where he worked with the defense.

Noonan earned a bachelor's degree in economics and a master's degree in labor and employment relations from Rutgers in 2010. Noonan was a two-year starter and four-year letterwinner at defensive tackle for the Scarlet Knights under current head coach Greg Schiano from 2006-10 and finished his collegiate career with 72 stops in 47 games played. Noonan signed with the Philadelphia Eagles as an undrafted free agent in 2011.

JOE SCHIANO

QUALITY CONTROL

Joe Schiano is in his fourth season on the Scarlet Knights' staff. The eldest son of Rutgers head coach Greg Schiano, he joined RU in 2020.

Schiano finished his playing career at Bucknell in 2019, seeing action in all 11 games with 25 tackles (17 solo), 3.5 tackles-for-loss, two sacks and two forced fumbles. In a win over Lehigh, the defensive lineman sealed the game with a strip sack on the final drive. He was a recipient of the Tom Gadd Coaches' Award.

A history major, Schiano earned a spot on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll three times, became a member of the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society and garnered recognition on the Bucknell Dean's List. Schiano was born in Chicago and played high school football at Berkeley Prep in Tampa, Florida.

PJ BARR

QUALITY CONTROL

PJ Barr begins his second season with Rutgers football in 2023. Barr previously served as a player development assistant for the Scarlet Knights during the 2022 campaign.

As a player, Barr was a standout on the offensive line at Bucknell from 2017-21 before transferring to Maine for the 2021 fall campaign. That season, Barr started all 11 games for the Black Bears, helping the unit rank third in the CAA and 24th nationally in sacks allowed (1.36). Barr earned Third Team All-CAA accolades and was invited to rookie minicamp with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

While at Bucknell, Barr was a two-time All-Patriot League selection, appearing in 37 career games for the Bison. Barr served as a team captain at Bucknell during his senior season and was twice named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. A native of North Brunswick, New Jersey, Barr earned his bachelor's degree in education from Bucknell in 2021.

MADISON BUNCH QUALITY CONTROL

Madison Bunch is in his first season with Rutgers football in 2023. Bunch arrives “On the Banks” after serving as the recruiting coordinator at Southeast Missouri State in 2022.

Prior to his arrival at Southeast Missouri State, Bunch was a graduate assistant at North Alabama, where he worked with the Lions’ running backs in 2021. Bunch also worked on staff at Arkansas Tech (2020) and Hendrix College (2019).

Bunch played collegiately at Southern Nazarene and Central Arkansas, working as a student assistant at UCA in 2017. A native of Roland, Oklahoma, Bunch earned his bachelor’s degree from Central Arkansas and his master’s degree from Arkansas Tech in 2021.

MILTON CORDERO QUALITY CONTROL

Milton Cordero begins his second season with Rutgers football in 2023. Cordero previously worked in player development in 2022.

Cordero played collegiately at Albright, appearing in 28 games at tight end for the Lions from 2014-17. Cordero earned second team All-MAC accolades as a senior, finishing with a career-high 47 receptions for 569 yards and three touchdowns. His 569 yards receiving were the second most in the conference during the 2017 campaign.

A native of Clifton, New Jersey, Cordero graduated with his bachelor’s degree from Albright in 2018.

MATT HEWITT QUALITY CONTROL

Matt Hewitt is in his seventh year with Rutgers football. He has also worked as defensive assistant (2022), assistant director of recruiting (2020-21), an offensive quality control coach (2019) and a recruiting assistant (2017-18) during his tenure “On the Banks.”

As part of the recruiting staff, Hewitt helped the Scarlet Knights secure the program’s highest-ranked class in the Big Ten era according to ESPN and 247Sports in 2022.

Prior to his arrival in Piscataway in 2017, Hewitt spent the summer with the Baltimore Ravens under the Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship, where he served as an assistant linebackers coach.

Hewitt began his collegiate coaching career in 2014 as the safeties and assistant special teams coach at William Paterson. He later coached tight ends at Bergen Catholic High School in 2015 and returned to college as a defensive quality control coach at Dartmouth College from 2015-16. The Big Green boasted the top ranked scoring defense, red zone defense and was fifth in total defense in the FCS en route to the 2015 Ivy League Championship.

In addition to his collegiate experience, Hewitt has served additional stints on the professional level, including the National Football League, Canadian Football League, Arena Football League and Indoor Football League. He was with the Buffalo Bills in 2008, Toronto Argonauts in 2009 and Calgary Stampede in 2011.

Hewitt played scholastically at Dwight Morrow High School in Englewood, New Jersey, before going on to Alfred State College. Hewitt later transferred to Arkansas, where he advanced to the Capital One Bowl in 2006 and AT&T Cotton Bowl in 2007. He was named to the Associated Press Second Team All-SEC in 2007.

Hewitt and Fatimah Holmes are the parents to three children, Josiah, Amiyah and Mariah.

SCOTT VALLONE QUALITY CONTROL

Scott Vallone, who finished his career holding the Rutgers football program record with 53 career games played, is in his fourth season back on the Scarlet Knights’ staff. He spent 2020 as an offensive graduate assistant after previously coaching the defensive line at Fordham for two years. That included serving as associate head coach in 2019.

In his first year with the Rams, Vallone guided a line that helped the defense lead the Patriot League and rank 20th in the NCAA FCS in tackles-for-loss (7.5/game). The team placed 36th nationally with 2.42 sacks per game in 2019. Vallone joined the Fordham staff after spending two years at St. Lawrence University as the team’s defensive coordinator. He also coached the linebackers in 2017 and the defensive line in 2016. In 2017, Vallone saw linebacker Skyler Williamson earn Liberty Conference Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Region honors along with three other players who earned All-Liberty Conference accolades. The St. Lawrence defense led the Liberty Conference in fourth down conversions (seventh in the NCAA), tackles-for-loss (12th in the NCAA), first downs defense (41st in the NCAA), third down conversions and sacks.

In 2016, Vallone led the Saints defense to one of the most dominant seasons in program history. St. Lawrence was the top-ranked team in the Liberty League in 13 defensive categories and ranked in the top 10 in the nation in five categories, including scoring defense (second, 11.0 points allowed per game), defensive touchdowns (third, six in 10 games), first downs defense (seventh overall and third among teams that played more than eight games, 129 allowed), red zone defense (seventh, .500) and tackles-for-loss (ninth, 9.1 per game). Among the Saints' defensive leaders was Chyron Brown-Wallace, current Rutgers graduate assistant and the most decorated St. Lawrence football player in nearly 35 years. He earned the highest vote total among NCAA Division III athletes for the Cliff Harris Award, which recognizes the best small college defensive player in the nation. A two-time American Football Coaches Association First Team All-American, Brown-Wallace was the 2016 Liberty League Defensive Player of the Year and earned D3football.com All-American honors.

Vallone served as the defensive line assistant coach at his alma mater, Rutgers University, in 2015 and started his coaching career as St. Lawrence's defensive line coach in 2014.

Vallone graduated from Rutgers in 2012 with a Bachelor of Arts in economics. A four-year starter for the Scarlet Knights at defensive tackle, he was a First Team All-Big East selection and the school's Best Rush Lineman Award winner as a senior after posting a team-high 12.5 tackles-for-loss. He finished his career with 195 tackles and made 51 consecutive starts. A Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America selection in 2009, he scored a touchdown against North Carolina Central after recovering a fumble in the end zone in the first game of the 2011 season.

Following graduation, Vallone had professional stints with three NFL teams, including the Miami Dolphins, Detroit Lions and New England Patriots. He also spent time in the CFL with the Montreal Alouettes.

EDDIE ALLEN QUALITY CONTROL

Eddie Allen is in his second season with Rutgers football in 2023. Allen, who was also on staff in Piscataway under head coach Greg Schiano from 2005-07, returned to the Scarlet Knights after most recently serving as the special teams coordinator at UConn from 2018-21.

In 2022, the Scarlet Knights held opponents to minus 11 punt return yards, best in the nation, with just one positive return against in 75 attempts. Adam Korsak won the Ray Guy Award as the top punter in the nation.

In his first season with the Huskies in 2018, Luke Magliozzi set the UConn single-season punting record with an average of 42.94 yards per attempt. Magliozzi had 12 punts of over 50 yards and pinned 19 kicks inside the 20.

Prior to his stint in East Hartford, Allen served as the special teams coordinator at Delaware from 2014-17. In his final season on staff, the Blue Hens tied for the top spot in the Colonial Athletic Association in net punting average with a mark of 38.8. During his time at Delaware, Allen coached two-time All-CAA punter Eric Anderson, who earned third team All-America status during the 2014 season. Additionally, Allen coached punter Nick Pritchard to a spot on the All-CAA Third Team during the 2017 season.

During his first two seasons at Delaware, Allen was also responsible for coaching the tight ends and helped develop All-American Nick Boyle at that position. Boyle was selected by the Baltimore Ravens in the fifth round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

Allen enjoyed great success during a six-year stint at the University of Rhode Island from 2008-13. During his tenure as a member of former head coach Joe Trainer's staff, he helped the Rams lead the CAA in fewest blocked kicks allowed and rank No. 2 in kickoff return average (22.3) during the 2013 campaign. Rhode Island also ranked No. 3 in the CAA in kickoff returns (20.9) and allowed the second fewest return yards in the league during the 2012 season.

In 2011, Rhode Island averaged 21.5 yards per kick return while allowing an average of just 18.9 yards per return. In 2010, under the direction of Allen, URI ranked in the CAA's top five in four special teams categories and held the league's top kickoff return average (23.8). Among the highlights was a blocked punt that was returned for the game-winning score over 2009 defending champion Villanova. In 2009, Rhode Island punter Tim Edger led the CAA in punting with a 41.5-yard average, and in 2008, the Rams blocked nine kicks on the season.

Prior to arriving at Rhode Island, Allen spent three seasons as a member of Schiano's coaching staff at Rutgers. He joined the Scarlet Knights' football program in 2005 as a player development assistant and worked as a graduate assistant in 2007.

Allen began his collegiate coaching career as the offensive graduate assistant and video coordinator at Hofstra University in 2003. The following season, Allen moved on to Fort Scott Community College in Fort Scott, Kansas, where he served as wide receivers coach.

A native of Somerville, Allen graduated with a bachelor's degree from the University of New Haven in 2003. He was a four-year letterwinner at quarterback for the Chargers.

He and his wife, Kristin, have four children, Austin, Brooklyn, Jackson and Makayla.

DAMASO MUÑOZ QUALITY CONTROL

Born in Brooklyn, New York, and raised in Miami, Florida, Damaso Muñoz is in his fourth season on the staff. He spent 2020 and 2021 as a defensive assistant for the Scarlet Knights. Muñoz was a four-year letterwinner as a Rutgers linebacker from 2006-09, as the team won a bowl championship each season.

Previously, Muñoz served as an assistant coach at Florida powerhouse St. Thomas Aquinas, helping the team to a perfect 15-0 record, after working with defensive backs and special teams at NAIA Keiser University.

As a player, Muñoz was recruited to Rutgers out of Miami Southridge High School and went on to play in 51 games for the Scarlet Knights with 200 career tackles, 20 tackles-for-loss and three interceptions. He also had a 35-yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the St. Petersburg Bowl, a 45-24 victory over UCF.

Muñoz was signed by the Chicago Bears in 2010 and later by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He had a successful six-year career in the Canadian Football League, playing with the Edmonton Eskimos and Ottawa Redblacks. He served as captain for the Redblacks in 2016 and earned the team's defensive player of the year.

Muñoz graduated from Rutgers with a bachelor's degree in labor management in 2010.

WILL GILKISON ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR/FOOTBALL

Will Gilkison is in his 22nd season with the Rutgers football program in 2023 and serves as the associate athletic director of football. He previously held the title of director of football operations for nine years after working as director of external operations and as a member of the Rutgers coaching staff. Gilkison was a four-year letterwinner for the Scarlet Knights.

Gilkison's duties include overseeing the day-to-day operations of the football program, along with logistical and budgetary responsibilities. He also manages team travel, organizes preseason camp and serves as the team's liaison to other athletic department offices and university branches. Following the unprecedented 2020 season, Gilkison was honored as the FootballScoop Football Operations Director of the Year.

A four-year letterwinner at linebacker with the Scarlet Knights, Gilkison captained the 2005 Insight Bowl team and was the recipient of the Paul Robeson Award, presented annually to the individual whose performance, leadership, and dedication on and off the field during his career has had the greatest impact on Rutgers football.

Gilkison became a member of the staff in 2006 as a student assistant. He was responsible for helping prepare and implement weekly practice schedules. Gilkison also worked as a strength and conditioning assistant during this time, creating and facilitating offseason training programs while instructing players in skill development. In 2008, Gilkison joined the player development staff, serving as a mentor for first- and second-year players. He oversaw the transition of these individuals into the college environment, assisting them with basic life skills, time management, goal setting and prioritizing.

He and his wife Katie currently reside in Union Beach, New Jersey. The couple have six children, Margaret, William, Grace, Gunnar, Harrison and Penelope.

JEFF JONES DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jeff Jones, who returned in 2022, is in his second stint with Rutgers football and serves as director of player development. Jones previously worked at his alma mater, Southern Illinois, as the Associate Athletics Director for Internal Operations under Director of Athletics and former Scarlet Knights' offensive coordinator

Jerry Kill. Jones also worked "On the Banks" in 2017 in the player development office.

Previously, Jones spent five seasons on staff at Minnesota from 2012-16 – which included three as the Gophers' Director of Player Personnel. There, Jones oversaw the day-to-day operations for the football student-athletes and worked closely with the coaching, recruiting, academic and communication staffs.

Prior to his arrival in Minneapolis, Jones was the coordinator of academic support at Southern Illinois from 2009-12. Jones managed all academic support for the athletic department and hosted recruits during official visits for football, women's basketball, softball and track and field. Jones began working in academics with football at Southern Illinois as a graduate assistant in 2007.

Jones played football at Southern Illinois from 2002-05 and worked in athletics at SIU from 2005-11. The Detroit native played defensive line for the Salukis and helped Southern Illinois to three consecutive conference titles from 2003-05.

Jones received his bachelor's degree (2006) and master's degree (2008) from Southern Illinois.

ERIC JOSEPHS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Eric Josephs begins his fifth season as director of player personnel at Rutgers. Prior to his arrival "On the Banks," Josephs spent the previous season at Baylor as the program's director of player personnel.

Rutgers signed the top recruit from New Jersey, New York and Kentucky in the 2022 class. Twelve different states were represented overall with the class being ranked the highest for the Scarlet Knights in the Big Ten era according to ESPN and 247Sports.

During his time in Waco, Josephs helped the Bears secure the No. 4 overall recruiting class in the Big 12 according to both Rivals and 247Sports for the 2019 recruiting cycle. In 2018, Baylor went on to win the Academy Sports + Outdoors Texas Bowl.

Josephs arrived at Baylor following a two-year stint as the director of recruiting at Tennessee from 2016-18. While on Rocky Top, Josephs helped the Vols secure the nation's No. 15 ranked recruiting class in 2017 according to Rivals and ESPN and a top-20 class in 2018. Tennessee secured a victory in the Music City Bowl over Nebraska in 2016.

Prior to his time with Tennessee, Josephs spent three years at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 2013-15, which included a stint as the program's director of player personnel in 2015. That season, Josephs was responsible for the identification, selection, organization and flow charts of prospective recruits. Miami made three-straight bowl appearances during his time with the Hurricanes and signed three top-25 recruiting classes. The 2014 class was rated No. 10 in the nation according to ESPN, while 2015 was ranked No. 25 and the 2016 class was listed at No. 19.

Josephs spent 2012 as an intern with the Philadelphia Eagles and also completed internships with the Dallas Cowboys, New England Patriots and Buffalo Bills. A native of Teaneck, New Jersey, Josephs earned his bachelor's degree in management from Wisconsin in 2011.

KEVIN MacCONNELL

CHIEF OF STAFF

Kevin MacConnell is in his fourth season back at Rutgers as the football chief of staff. MacConnell spent more than 25 years in his previous stint with Rutgers Athletics, last serving as the department's deputy director of athletics.

For the previous six years before returning, MacConnell helped create and oversee the Sports Division for Academy Bus, the largest bus provider of collegiate and professional sports teams in the country.

MacConnell has over 35 years of experience in college and professional sports, most recently serving as the director of football operations for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under head coach Greg Schiano. In that role he handled many of the day-to-day activities for the NFL club and served as the liaison between football and non-football departments. In addition, he managed several elements of Schiano's off-field agenda, including player and staff communications, football and stadium operations, scheduling and personal requests.

Prior to his time in the NFL, MacConnell oversaw various roles at Rutgers, assisting with public and community relations, marketing, promotions, corporate sponsorship, fundraising, ticket sales, event management and operations, team travel, radio and television. In his first post at Rutgers, MacConnell was the director of sports media relations before taking on the role of assistant athletic director of marketing and communications, followed by associate athletic director for external affairs. He was promoted to deputy director of athletics, a role that he held for his final seven years at Rutgers.

MacConnell began his career in the National Basketball Association as assistant public relations director of the New Jersey Nets. From there, he became director of public relations for the USFL's New Jersey Generals before starting his college athletics career as director of media relations for the Atlantic 10 Conference.

MacConnell and his wife, Debbie, have a son, Kevin. He also has a son, Brett, who currently serves as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator on the Princeton men's basketball staff.

TIM MACHAN

DIRECTOR OF INTEGRATED HIGH PERFORMANCE

Tim Machan is in his third season with Rutgers football and second as Director of Integrated High Performance in 2023. In his current role, Machan works closely with sports medicine, strength and conditioning, the team's nutrition program as well as mental health, and helps facilitate coordination and collaboration among departments.

Prior to his arrival "On the Banks," Machan spent four years at Cincinnati, where he oversaw the care of more than 500 student-athletes across 19 Division I programs as Director of Rehabilitation for the Bearcats' sports medicine program.

SUPPORT STAFF

Prior to his arrival at Cincinnati, Machan worked as a sports physical therapist with 5th Special Forces Group (Fort Campbell, Kentucky), EXOS (Fort Bragg, North Carolina) and True Sports Physical Therapy (Baltimore, Maryland).

Machan played football at Washington University in St. Louis, where he lettered as a defensive back for the Bears from 2006-09. Machan appeared in 38 career games at Washington and finished with 183 tackles and 12 interceptions. Machan was a three-time all-conference selection and was named team MVP as a senior in 2009.

A native of Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, Machan graduated from Washington University in 2010 with his bachelor's degree in psychology and earned his doctorate in physical therapy from the Washington University School of Medicine in 2013. He lives with his wife Emily on Staten Island.

DAVID McCUNE DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINING

Dave McCune, a Virginia native, rejoined the Rutgers football team in January 2020 as the head athletic trainer and moved to director of football athletic training for the 2022 season. He is employed by RWJBH Health Services and also serves as the assistant director of the athletic training department. He previously served at Rutgers as the Scarlet Knights' head football athletic trainer from 2001-2016, overseeing all aspects of athletic training from injury prevention to rehabilitation within the program. While at Rutgers, he also co-directed in the coordination of the entire athletic department's athletic training staff.

McCune's extensive professional career spans over 33 years where he began as an assistant athletic trainer at Missouri State University. He first served as head athletic trainer at the University of Miami Sports Medicine Clinic from 1989 and until 1995 working with the orthopedic surgeons for the Heat, Marlins, Dolphins and Hurricanes. He then returned to his alma mater to serve as the men's basketball, soccer and baseball athletic trainer for James Madison University from 1995-97.

Following his time with the Dukes, he returned to the University of Miami as the coordinator of athletic training & football athletic trainer from 1997-2001. From 2001, McCune served as the head football athletic trainer for the Scarlet Knights. In 2005, he was named the co-director of athletic training and remained in that position until 2016.

In July 2016, he was named the head athletic trainer at Christopher Newport University in Newport News, Virginia. He served as the coordinator for the athletic training department and also provided the medical care for the Captains' football and baseball teams.

McCune received his bachelor's degree from James Madison University and went on to earn his master's degree from Missouri State University in 1988. A member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association (NATA), McCune has also served as a clinical education instructor at Rutgers and has teaching experience dating back to 1987. In addition to his work in collegiate athletic departments, he has also worked and traveled with the USA National Track & Field team, USA Soccer and was selected to work the Pan American Games.

McCune is married to Annie, a Rutgers grad. They have three sons, Devon, Braden and Alex.

ANTHONY MISURACO HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Anthony Misuraco is in his second season as head football athletic trainer for the Scarlet Knights in 2023. The New Jersey native rejoined the Rutgers sports medicine staff in January 2020 after previously working with the football team between 2011 and 2016. He has also provided care for the Scarlet Knights' men's and women's track/field/cross country teams and for baseball.

In 2013 and 2014, Misuraco worked in the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a year-long intern athletic trainer. While with the Bucs, Misuraco worked under the leadership of Rutgers head football coach Greg Schiano and other current Scarlet Knight assistant coaches.

In his time away from Rutgers, Misuraco was a sports medicine supervisor for ATI Physical Therapy and an assistant athletic trainer at George Washington University.

Misuraco received his bachelor's degree in exercise science from West Chester University in 2010 and a master's degree in athletic training from Seton Hall University in 2012. He also holds a certification as a Corrective Exercise Specialist through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Originally from Sicklerville, New Jersey, Misuraco now resides in Westampton with his wife, Autumn, and their daughter, Aurora.

MATT WALP

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Matt Walp is in his second season on the Scarlet Knights' staff in 2023. Walp, who spent the previous two seasons as the head coach at Archbishop Wood High School in Pennsylvania, serves as director of player engagement for Rutgers football. He also has 25 years of experience in the construction industry, including the eight with Caterpillar Inc.

Walp led the Vikings to eight wins in 2020 and 2021 competing in the competitive Catholic League Red Division. He was previously part of the Archbishop Wood staff that won six PIAA state championships, coaching both sides of the ball. That included defensive backs and linebackers on defense, and running backs and tight ends on offense.

In the business world, Walp had a successful career working with Foley Inc., one of the top Caterpillar dealerships based in Piscataway. He was responsible for developing relationships with CEOs and presidents of top companies within the global market for construction. Caterpillar is the world's leading manufacturer of construction equipment and more.

Walp has 26 years of coaching experience with prior stops at Neshaminy High School and in the college ranks at his alma mater, Delaware Valley. As a defensive back for the Aggies, he led the team with 64 tackles in 1994.

Walp is the proud father of five children, daughters Miranda and Jordan, and sons Peyton, Anthony and Austin. He is supported by his significant other, Tina. Walp is a 1995 graduate of Delaware Valley.

JORDAN WOLKSTEIN

DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS AND BRANDING

Wolkstein leads the creative media team and is responsible for the Scarlet Knights' presence on social media. Wolkstein also works on key marketing initiatives in promoting the program.

Prior to his arrival in Piscataway, Wolkstein spent five years in the financial sector. Wolkstein was an associate at Goldman Sachs after a three-year tenure at JPMorgan Chase & Co.

Wolkstein worked under head coach Greg Schiano with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as an operations intern during the summers of 2012 and 2013. After his stint in South Florida, Wolkstein served in the same capacity with the football program at Maryland during its training camp in 2014.

A Livingston, New Jersey, native, Wolkstein graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Muhlenberg College in 2015.

CHAS DODD

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

A former starting quarterback for the Scarlet Knights under Greg Schiano, Chas Dodd is in his third season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the football program. Dodd spent the previous two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Miami.

Before Miami, Dodd worked at The University of South Carolina for three seasons (2016-2018). He served as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant during his time in Columbia. Dodd arrived at South Carolina after spending one year as an assistant football coach/strength and conditioning coach at Opelika High School in Alabama.

A native of Lyman, South Carolina, Dodd played one year of professional football in the IFL (Italian Football League) in 2015 for the Lazio Marines. Dodd earned the league's player of the year award after he led the league with 295.8 passing yards per game.

Dodd enjoyed a four-year career at Rutgers from 2010-2013, where he helped the Scarlet Knights to three consecutive bowl games. Dodd finished his career "On the Banks" with 24 touchdown passes and more than 4,000 yards passing. An Academic All-Big East student-athlete, Dodd was named the conference offensive player of the week after he threw for 322 yards and two touchdowns in a come-from-behind win against UConn in his first career start.

Dodd earned a bachelor's degree from Rutgers University and his master's degree from California University of Pennsylvania.

SUPPORT STAFF

KAMALI O'BRIAN ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Kamali O'Brian is in his first season with Rutgers football as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2023. Prior to his arrival "On the Banks," O'Brian spent the previous three years at Wagner (2020-23).

O'Brian was promoted to associate athletic director for sports performance with the Seahawks in 2022 after two years as an assistant athletic director.

O'Brian arrived at Wagner after serving as an assistant strength and condition coach at Robert Morris from 2019-20, where he worked with the Colonials' football, men's golf and men's and women's lacrosse programs.

O'Brian spent 2018 at Baylor as an assistant athletic performance coach, working exclusively with the Bears' football program, instructing return-to-play athletes.

O'Brian's other work experiences at the collegiate level include stints at St. Joseph's (2019), IUP (2016-18), Pittsburgh (2017) and Edinboro (2016). His certifications include NSCA CSCS Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, USAW Sport Performance Level I and FMS Functional Movement Screen Level I.

O'Brian graduated with a bachelor's degree in human performance from Edinboro, where he lettered in lacrosse.

MIKE TUFO ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Mike Tufo is in his second tenure with Rutgers football, serving as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Scarlet Knights in 2023. Tufo also worked at RU from 2005-2016 and possesses more than 15 years of strength coaching experience at the collegiate level.

Prior to his return to Rutgers in 2020, Tufo spent three seasons as the head football strength and conditioning coach at Princeton from 2017-19. The Tigers went 26-4 during his three years with the program, which included an undefeated 10-0 mark in 2018.

Tufo previously worked at Rutgers from 2005-16, as he worked his way up to become the associate director of strength and conditioning. Tufo worked with more than 25 Scarlet Knights who went on to sign NFL contracts and was on staff for nine bowl game appearances and six bowl victories.

Tufo served two years as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant at the University of Connecticut from 2003-05. Tufo worked with several Husky programs, including the 2004 men's and women's basketball national championships squads.

Tufo earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical therapy from The College of New Jersey in 2002 and his master's in kinesiology from UConn in 2005. Tufo was a varsity soccer player during his undergraduate years at TCNJ.

Tufo is a NSCA Strength and Conditioning specialist and is CSCCA Strength and Condition certified. Tufo also set a Guinness World Record for most pull-ups in 24 hours with 5,101.

JAMAAL WESTERMAN ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Jamaal Westerman is in his fourth season on the Scarlet Knights' staff and second as assistant strength and conditioning coach. He played in 50 games for Rutgers from 2005-08 before seeing action in 58 NFL contests (2009-13) and 60 CFL games (2015-18). He ranks third in RU history with 26 career sacks.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, later moving to Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and playing high school football at Notre Dame Academic in Brampton, Ontario, Canada, Westerman was a two-time All-Big East selection and part of four RU teams that appeared in bowl games. That included traveling back to Canada for the 2008 International Bowl, a 52-30 victory over Ball State.

Overall, Westerman recorded 141 collegiate tackles as a defensive end with 44.5 tackles-for-loss, 26 sacks, four pass breakups, three forced fumbles and two blocked kicks. He earned the team's David Bender Award in 2008.

Westerman was signed by the New York Jets in 2009 and would also appear with the Indianapolis Colts, Arizona Cardinals, Buffalo Bills and Pittsburgh Steelers. In the CFL, Westerman posted 17 sacks with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers to earn all-star status.

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. – Rutgers football opened the 2022 season on a high note with a come-from-behind 22-21 victory over Boston College on Saturday at Alumni Stadium.

Despite playing from behind most of the game, the Scarlet Knights went on a 12-play, 96-yard touchdown drive late in the fourth quarter to take the lead for good against the Eagles. RU ran the ball 11 times on the drive, capped by a 22-yard touchdown run by RB Al-Shadee Salaam, his first career rushing score.

The Rutgers offense out-rushed the Eagles, picking up 212 yards on 42 carries, led by 64 yards and a touchdown from RB Kyle Monangai, 53 yards and a touchdown from Salaam and 40 yards on the ground from QB Gavin Wimsatt.

The defense picked up four sacks and eight tackles-for-loss, had a pair of interceptions from DB Christian Braswell and DB Robert Longerbeam, as well as a fumble recovery by DL Wesley Bailey. The unit allowed only 29 rushing yards.

"Old" Rutgers Stadium

Dedicated on November 5, 1938 at the Rutgers-Princeton game, the Stadium had its first game two weeks earlier as Rutgers hosted Hampden-Sydney. The season finale against Lafayette was the third game in the Stadium. Rutgers won all three contests and did not lose at the site until the sixth game in 1940, a 7-6 loss to Lafayette. Rutgers won the first 13 Stadium games, including seven straight in 1939.

Years	Record
1938-1992	168-53-4

Giants Stadium

Rutgers played the first college game at the venue in 1976 and used the NFL stadium as a "home away from home," including an appearance in the 1978 Garden State Bowl.

Year	Record
1976-1996	20-28

SHI Stadium

Built on the site of the "Old" Rutgers Stadium on the Busch Campus in Piscataway. The name became High Point Solutions Stadium in 2011, HighPoint.com Stadium in 2018 and SHI Stadium in 2019.

HISTORY & TRADITION

NOV. 6, 1869: THE FIRST GAME

THE FIRST GAME

Rutgers and Princeton played the first game of intercollegiate football on Nov. 6, 1869, on a plot of ground where the present-day Rutgers gymnasium now stands in New Brunswick, N.J. Rutgers won that first game, 6-4.

The game was played with two teams of 25 men each under rugby-like rules, but like modern football, it was "replete with surprise, strategy, prodigies of determination and physical prowess," to use the words of one of the Rutgers players.

At 3 p.m. on that memorable afternoon, the 50 competitors and about 100 spectators gathered on the field. To distinguish themselves from the bareheaded visitors, 50 Rutgers students, including players, donned scarlet-colored scarves which they converted into turbans.

Events leading up to the game were described by John W. Herbert, Rutgers '72, who was one of the players: "To appreciate this game to the fullest you must know something of its background," Herbert wrote in 1933. "The two colleges were, and still are, of course, about 20 miles apart. The rivalry between them was intense. For years each had striven for possession of an old Revolutionary cannon, making night forays and lugging it back and forth time and again. Not long before the first football game, the canny Princetonians had settled this competition in their own favor by ignominiously sinking the gun in several feet of concrete. In addition to this, I regret to report, Princeton had beaten Rutgers in baseball by the harrowing score of 40-2. Rutgers longed for a chance to square things."

A challenge for the game was issued by Rutgers. Three games were to be played that year. The first, played at New Brunswick, was won by Rutgers. Princeton won the second game, but cries of "over-emphasis" prevented the third game in football's first year when faculties of both institutions protested on the grounds that the games were interfering with student studies. An analytical account of the game appeared in the November, 1869 issue of The Targum, Rutgers' undergraduate newspaper.

"To describe the varying fortunes of the match, game by game, would be a waste of labor for every game was like the one before," wrote the student reporter. "There was the same head-long running, wild shouting, and frantic kicking.

"To sum up, Princeton had the most muscle, but didn't kick very well, and wanted organization. They evidently don't like to kick the ball on the ground. Our men, on the other hand, though comparatively weak, ran well, and kicked well throughout. But their great point was the organization, for which great praise is due to the captain. The right men were always in the right place."

One of the Princeton players, William Preston Lane, in 1933 contended in a newspaper interview that Rutgers "ran us Princeton men out of town. I never found out why they did that," he related. "But we don't ask any questions. When we saw them coming after us, we ran to the outskirts of New Brunswick and got into our carriages and wagons and went away as fast as we could."

Lane's contention is refuted in The Targum account. "After the match the players had an amicable 'feed together,'" the paper reported. "At 8 o'clock our guests went home, in high good spirits, thirsting to beat us next time, if they can."

Regardless of what actually happened after the first game, football was here to stay. Rutgers got Columbia University started in the grid sport the following season and in a few years most of the colleges and universities in the East were represented on the gridiron.

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

PAUL ROBESON

THE HISTORY OF RUTGERS FOOTBALL

Parts of this article were written by John Bruns, former long-time sports writer for the Home News and the Easton Times-Express.

1869-1912: The Birthplace of College Football

When Rutgers defeated Princeton in 1869, the setting was quite different than it is today. The game was contested on a field along College Avenue in New Brunswick. There were not tens of thousands of cheering fans in a multi-million dollar stadium. There was no manicured grass field or electronic scoreboard. There was no elaborate athletic equipment or television cameras. But on that fall day in 1869, those students established a tradition of quality football programs, competitiveness and school spirit that continues at Rutgers, the birthplace of intercollegiate football.

Entering its 153rd season in 2022, Rutgers has had many historical moments, outstanding athletes and memorable triumphs over the years.

However, those historic moments were difficult to predict during the early years when intercollegiate football scheduling was inconsistent. For example, Rutgers won six of 10 games in 1882, but played only one game in 1885. Similarly, the Scarlet Knights went 8-6 in 1891, but two years later played only four games. By the early 1900s, scheduling had become more consistent and football became more popular across the country.

The eight wins of 1891 were not matched until Rutgers went 8-1 in 1947 with one of the most successful teams of coach Harvey Harman in the Golden Era immediately following World War II. That team, quarterbacked by Frank Burns, who would later become Rutgers' most successful coach, lost its opener to Columbia and then swept through eight-straight opponents.

1913-1925: 'A Tradition of Success Begins'

In 1913, coach George Foster Sanford began a tradition of success among Rutgers coaches in their inaugural year by leading his team to a 6-3 mark. He then flirted with two perfect seasons, improving the team to 7-1 in 1915 and 7-1-1 in 1917.

Those two seasons, which featured All-American Paul Robeson, were among Rutgers' best. The Scarlet Knights outscored opponents by an average of 44-3 in 1915 and 33-2 in 1917. Sanford, a member of Rutgers' Hall of Fame, also helped to introduce Rutgers to the New York metropolitan area, playing games at the Polo Grounds against teams like Notre Dame, Nebraska, Louisiana State and West Virginia. A few years later, in 1924, two-time All-America end and fullback Homer Hazel helped coach John Wallace continue the tradition of first-year coaching success, as Rutgers posted a 7-1-1 mark.

1925-1960: Making a Mark on the Collegiate Landscape

Harvey Harman also had a successful first season, going 7-1 in 1938, the year Rutgers dedicated the original Rutgers Stadium. Rutgers won the dedication game, 20-18, over Princeton.

Harman, however, was replaced by former coach Harry Rockafeller during World War II. His tenure included an 8-1 season in 1947 when Rutgers, dominated by WWII veterans, registered a combined record of 27-7 from 1945-48.

When John Steigman coached Rutgers from 1956-59, he brought back the single-wing formation to the Scarlet Knight offense, and led Rutgers to an 8-1 mark in 1958. The only loss of that season, 13-12 to the Quantico Marines, came when All-American tailback Billy Austin had to miss a game due to a broken hand.

1961-1972: RU's First Undefeated Season

Another first-year coach got off to an impressive start when John Bateman went 8-1 in 1960. That campaign was followed by Rutgers' first undefeated season in 1961, when the team went 9-0, capping the season with a fourth-quarter, 25-point comeback win over Columbia. That team included All-American center Alex Kroll, and was ranked 15th nationally. In his 13 seasons, Bateman led Rutgers to 73 wins in 124 games.

NATE TORAN

1973-1983: The Burns Era & 1976

In 1973, Frank Burns took the reins of Rutgers football and became the most successful Rutgers coach ever by building teams recognized for fundamentals and defense. Burns himself was also known as a fierce linebacker and won the Most Valuable Player Award in the 1949 College All-Star game, when he made 17 tackles against the New York Giants. The Burns' defenses were led by linebackers Ed Steward, Jim Hughes, Jim Dumont and defensive end Nate Toran. Burns' first team went 6-5, while running back "JJ" Jennings rushed for 1,353 yards (third in Rutgers history) and 21 touchdowns (second).

Over the next five seasons, Burns' teams won at least seven games each season, including a five-season stretch from 1975-79 when Rutgers' winning percentage was .803 with a record of 45-11. The jewel in the crown of Burns' tenure as Rutgers' coach was the 1976 season, when the team was perfect at 11-0, establishing the best season ever at Rutgers. During Burns' 11 seasons at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights won nearly two-thirds of their games (78-44). He also took Rutgers to its first bowl appearance – the Garden State Bowl – at Giants Stadium against Arizona State in 1978.

Doubtless, the biggest win of the Burns era was the 13-7 upset of Tennessee on November 3, 1979 in Knoxville. Burns called it "the greatest of my coaching career."

The following year, 1980, Rutgers had one of its great "near-misses" of its long history when the Scarlet bowed, 17-13, to a highly-favored Alabama team coached by Bear Bryant at Giants Stadium. The gracious Bryant said, "We didn't beat Rutgers. All I can say is we won."

1984-1989: Memorable Upsets

In 1984 when Dick Anderson was named head coach, a renewed commitment to football at Rutgers was backed by a $3 million state-funded package. Those funds helped finance the artificial surface practice fields, the practice "Bubble" and the Hale Center, which includes locker rooms, offices, a weight-training area and medical facilities for the football team.

Anderson won seven of 10 games in his inaugural season. Other highlights of his years at Rutgers include upset wins over such nationally-ranked teams as Penn State and Michigan State, and a nationally-televised victory over Northwestern in the program's 1,000th game. Anderson's teams produced some of the most exciting players in Rutgers history, including record-breaking passer Scott Erney, career tackles leader Tyrone Stowe (533 from 1983-86) and football/baseball star Eric Young. Anderson's last game at Rutgers was a memorable one. It was the 1989 Emerald Isle Classic versus Pittsburgh in Dublin, Ireland, the first time a Rutgers team played overseas.

1990-1999: BIG EAST, Big Games

Doug Graber became the Scarlet Knights' 23rd coach in 1990 and placed an emphasis on recruiting the best talent in the state of New Jersey. His first recruiting class included three first team all-state selections and two second-team All-State selections among the 12 recruits from New Jersey.

Another major boost for Rutgers came in 1991 when Rutgers joined the Big East Conference and won its first league game over Boston College, 20-13. The team went 13-9 in its first two years in the league, including a 4-2 mark in 1992.

The 1994 season celebrated not only the 125 years of college football, but also the return of the newly-renovated and expanded Rutgers Stadium. The return was a welcomed one. Rutgers teams have been at their best at the stadium, compiling a 237-120-4 (.662) record there since 1938. The new stadium has been quite a different setting than that of the first college football game played 130 years ago, as the Scarlet Knights are playing for their own place in history as they continue the college football tradition that was born "On the Banks of the Old Raritan."

2000-2005: Schiano's Arrival

1998 Big East Coach of the Year Terry Shea concluded his tenure in 2000, as the Scarlet Knights opted to take the program in a different direction for the 2001 season. On Dec. 1, 2000, Director of Athletics Bob Mulcahy introduced the newest coach in the storied history of Rutgers football, Greg Schiano.

Schiano's first three recruiting classes rejuvenated the football program. In 2003, the team closed strong, upsetting Syracuse, 24-7, in the season finale. In 2004, before the largest crowd ever at the time at Rutgers Stadium (42,612), the Scarlet Knights defeated Michigan State, 19-14.

In 2005, Schiano coached Rutgers to its best record in over a decade, 7-5, and its first bowl bid since 1978. In a Wild West shootout staged at Chase Field in Phoenix, Rutgers fell just short, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl Dec. 27.

RANDY JACKSON

THE BIRTHPLACE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

2006: Pandemonium in Piscataway

In 2006, Schiano was named the National Coach of the Year and Big East Coach of the Year, as the Scarlet Knights earned their first national top-10 ranking in 2006 and won 11 games for the second time in school history. The campaign included a thrilling win 28-25 over No. 3/4 Louisville in front of a Thursday night national audience on ESPN. The comeback victory, with RU overcoming an 18-point deficit, became one of the turning points in modern Rutgers history as fans stormed the field to ignite "Pandemonium in Piscataway." Rutgers ended the season with a ranking of No. 12 in the national polls.

The success Rutgers achieved on the field was something Schiano envisioned from the first day he became the leader of the Scarlet Knights. At his introductory press conference, Schiano stated, "We're going to win at Rutgers and we're going to do it the right way." The 2006 season was complete with a convincing 37-10 victory over Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, the first bowl championship in school history. In addition, Brian Leonard was the recipient of the Draddy Trophy, known as the Academic Heisman.

2007-11: Sustained Success

The program won eight more games in 2007, including the highest ranked win in program history with a 30-27 victory over No. 2 USF. The season concluded with a dominating 52-30 victory over Ball State at the International Bowl in Toronto. Ray Rice ran for a school-record 280 rushing yards on the day to bring his career total to 4,926, a program high. An All-America pick and Heisman Trophy candidate, the running back also set the Scarlet Knight standards for attempts (910), touchdowns (49) and 100-yard games (25).

The 2008 campaign for the Scarlet Knights started slowly, but the program relied on a strong foundation built by Schiano and together as a family, Rutgers turned in seven consecutive victories to close out the season – culminating in a 29-23 victory over NC State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. In 2009, the Scarlet Knights saw a number of milestones set en route to a record of 9-4, including a 45-24 victory over UCF in the St. Petersburg Bowl.

PANDEMONIUM IN PISCATAWAY

Prior to Schiano's arrival at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights had never fielded a receiver who had gained 1,000 yards in a season. In 2009, Tim Brown became the fourth during his tenure to eclipse the mark. Brown also became the school's all-time leader in receiving touchdowns, passing RU's initial first round draft pick Kenny Britt. RU had two first-round picks in 2010, with Anthony Davis being the highest pick in program history at No. 11 by the San Francisco 49ers. Devin McCourty was selected at No. 27 by the New England Patriots.

While the results on the field did not favor Rutgers in 2010, the world was introduced to Eric LeGrand. The junior defensive tackle suffered a spinal cord injury at MetLife Stadium Oct. 16 against Army, but he did not let the condition bring him down. LeGrand has become a public figure and has raised countless dollars towards spinal cord research. He became the first Scarlet Knight in the 144 years of the football program to have his number retired during halftime of the Sept. 14, 2013 game against Eastern Michigan.

Rutgers returned to a bowl game in 2011 with a trip to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. It was the second game of the season for the team at Yankee Stadium. The Scarlet Knights defeated Army during the regular season before beating Iowa State in the bowl game. Wide receiver Mohamed Sanu set the school record with 115 receptions on the season and was drafted in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2012: Big East Champions

Following the season, head coach Greg Schiano took the head coaching job with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers to end an 11-year tenure. Kyle Flood, who joined the program in 2005, was promoted from the staff to the lead position several days later.

Flood made an immediate impact on the Rutgers program with a successful first season, as he led the school to its first Big East Championship in 2012, ending with a 9-4 record and 5-2 record in the league. Flood was named the Big East Coach of the Year. Flood's nine regular season victories were the most by any first-year coach in Rutgers history, as eight players garnered All-Big East honors. Khaseem Greene totaled 136 tackles to earn Big East Defensive Player of the Year for the second consecutive season, in addition to All-America status. The defensive unit was among the best in school history, ranking fourth nationally in scoring defense, tied for ninth in turnovers gained and 10th in total defense.

The year culminated with a trip to the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando to face Virginia Tech. In the offseason, Rutgers had 12 players signed by NFL teams, with a school-record seven selected in the NFL Draft.

Rutgers came out of the gates in 2013 with a 4-1 start through September. Following a 52-51 loss in overtime at Fresno State, RU rattled off four straight wins. The winning streak was highlighted by a comeback win over Arkansas in the first visit by an SEC team to Piscataway. In its first American Athletic Conference game, Rutgers won in triple overtime at SMU, 55-52. Other conference victories included a late fourth quarter win with the hurry-up offense versus Temple and a postseason-clinching performance on Senior Night against USF. The 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl was the eighth bowl trip in nine years for Rutgers. The Scarlet Knights took on a ranked Notre Dame team inside a sold-out Yankee Stadium.

SEPT. 13, 2014: FIRST BIG TEN GAME

2014-19: Big Ten - Our New Home

On July 1, 2014, Rutgers officially joined the Big Ten Conference to usher in a new era in its deep and storied history. Support for the program reached new levels for the Big Ten opener, as a stadium-record 53,774 fans packed High Point Solutions Stadium for a game against Penn State. The Scarlet Knights won their first Big Ten game Oct. 4 over Michigan, with Kemoko Turay leaping to block a potential go-ahead field goal to seal the win and set off a storming of the field. The first road win in conference play came at Maryland after RU erased a 35-10 deficit to win 41-38 in the biggest comeback in school history, which would be matched a year later at Indiana. Senior quarterback Gary Nova threw for 347 yards on a career-best 28 completions in the 2014 win versus the Terrapins, ending his career as the all-time touchdown passing leader (73).

The first year in the Big Ten would be capped off with a convincing 40-21 win over North Carolina in the Quick Lane Bowl, hosted by the Detroit Lions. The Scarlet Knights went 8-5 and earned the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, emblematic of the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In the second year in the Big Ten, Leonte Carroo closed his time as a Scarlet Knight with 10 receiving touchdowns to raise his school-record total to 29 over 31 games at the position. He averaged a score once every 4.2 receptions over his career, racking up 2,373 yards to join the list of standout wide receivers.

On Dec. 7, 2015, Chris Ash took over the program as the Scarlet Knights continued to establish a presence in the Big Ten and nationally. The program added a number of facility upgrades during his tenure, including the Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex and the Brown Family Football Locker Room.

Culminating a year-long celebration of the 150th anniversary of the first college football game, Rutgers marked the occasion on Nov. 6, 2019 with the Ringing of the Bells at Old Queens and the unveiling of a new plaque at the site celebrating its 6-4 win over Princeton.

2020: Welcome Back, Coach Schiano

With a change of leadership announced during the 2019 season, Rutgers announced the return of Schiano as head football coach on Dec. 3, 2019. Schiano had three nine-win campaigns and coached 16 Rutgers All-America selections during his first tenure, including a 56-33 mark in his last seven seasons.

The Scarlet Knights improved immediately during Schiano's first season back, as it matched its program high with three Big Ten victories during the pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign. Rutgers had 14 players recognized in the All-Big Ten voting, the most for the program since joining the league. In addition, RU posted a team-best 26.7 points per game in a Big Ten season, a gain of 13.4 points per game from the previous season for the fourth-best improvement nationally.

The progress continued in 2021 with the program's first 3-0 start since 2012. In Big Ten action, RU won two road games, a come-from-behind victory at Illinois that saw a late fourth-down stop and a five-touchdown triumph over Indiana, the program's largest margin of victory in a Big Ten game. With just nine days' notice, Schiano led the Scarlet Knights to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl on New Year's Eve, battling top-20 Wake Forest in front of a national television audience of over three million on ESPN. Johnny Langan garnered Rutgers' MVP for the game after contributing in numerous ways, as the Scarlet Knights gained valuable experience and exposure participating in the nation's sixth-oldest bowl game.

In 2022, Rutgers started 3-0 for the second-straight season, the first time that had been done since 2007 and 2008. The victory over Temple marked the 79th victory for head coach Greg Schiano to pass the legendary Frank Burns as the program's all-time wins leader. Rutgers also set an average home attendance record as interest in the program continues to rise. One of eight players to collect All-Big Ten honors, three-time captain P Adam Korsak earned First Team All-America status and won the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. It marked the first on-field national award won by a Rutgers football player in program history. The defense was highlighted by Third Team All-Big Ten pick DL Aaron Lewis, as the unit improved by nearly 50 yards per game in total defense. The Scarlet Knights continue to develop players for the NFL, with DB Christian Braswell drafted by the Jaguars and six others signing contracts.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

HOMER HAZEL (CLASS OF 1951)

He parted his dark hair down the middle, in the fashion of the day, and his deep-set eyes glowed with a competitive fire. Homer Hazel, Rutgers' first Hall of Famer, was, without doubt, the most versatile player the Scarlet ever produced. A natural athlete, Hazel excelled in various sports and was most successful as a track and field star. His speed and quickness served him well, for he once recovered his own kickoff in the enemy end zone for a touchdown. Homer led Rutgers to identical 7-1-1 records in his final two seasons, earning All-America laurels in each. He was an end in 1923, when the only Scarlet loss was to West Virginia (27-7). He had Rutgers on the way to an unbeaten finish in 1924 - this time as a hard-hitting fullback - when Bucknell untracked the Scarlet in the final game of the season, 12-7. During the 1924 campaign, Homer Hazel established school records for most points after a touchdown and longest completed pass. He could do it all. Carrying 226 pounds over a 5-foot-11 frame, Homer lettered in football, basketball, baseball and track at Rutgers. He later served as Athletic Director, football and basketball coach at the University of Mississippi for more than five years. He was a golf pro for four years, and a labor relations manager for more than 20 years. Hazel won his first letter in football at Rutgers in 1916. He left school because of a lack of funds. Hazel worked at various jobs and, at age 28, played football again at Rutgers. Walter Camp named him All-America end in 1923, All-America fullback in 1924. Hazel was born June 2, 1895, and died February 3, 1968.

GEORGE LITTLE (CLASS OF 1955)

A graduate of Ohio Wesleyan, George Little opened his coaching career at the University of Cincinnati and produced a two-year record of 10-8-0 before moving up the road to Oxford, Ohio, home of the Miami Redskins, in 1916. There, Little brought the Redskins their first Conference Championship and a 7-0-1 mark. After service in World War I, Little returned to Miami and directed the Red and White to yet another league crown and a three-year post-war record of 20-3-1. He also coached the Miami basketball and track teams, claiming a conference crown in the latter sport. The 1922 and 1923 seasons found Little at Michigan under head coach Fielding Yost, the man he replaced in 1924. That year, Little's Wolverines were 6-2. The next season, Little was in Wisconsin as the new Athletic Director and head coach of the Badgers, and he led his charges to a two-year mark of 11-3-2. His teams displayed imagination and strength on offense, a unique ruggedness on defense. Little wound up his collegiate career as the Athletic Director at Rutgers, and then served as executive secretary of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

GEORGE FOSTER SANFORD (CLASS OF 1971)

At the entrance to Rutgers Stadium, inscribed upon a bronze plaque, is a tribute to George Sanford. It was financed and installed by his players, the men "...he inspired to deeds beyond themselves." Undoubtedly, Sanford was an inspirational leader of men, a gentleman who excelled as both player and coach. Sanford played center on the 1891 and 1892 Yale teams which held each of their 26 opponents scoreless. Though he was never chosen to an All-America team, a 1927 poll named him the all-time Yale center. Sanford began his coaching career at Columbia (1899-1901), called in to revive the football program which had been abandoned after the 1891 campaign. His 1899 team defeated Yale for the first time ever, and it was at Columbia that Sanford developed the famous "Flying Hurdle Play" which saw Harold Weekes catapulted over the line of scrimmage. Moving to Rutgers (1913-23), Sanford had marked success as his club rolled to a 56-32-5 record. He was hailed as a "miracle worker" in 1917, after his Rutgers team beat the heavily-favored Newport Naval Reserve All-Stars, 14-0. Between his teams at Columbia and Rutgers, Sanford devoted his energy toward a successful insurance brokerage business.

HARVEY HARMAN (CLASS OF 1981)

Few men loved the game with the fervor of Harvey Harman, a huge man with a grand smile and a fierce dedication to the sport. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Harman received that group's Amos Alonzo Stagg Award, symbolic of outstanding service to the profession. It was not surprising that Harman achieved such acclaim, for he learned his football lessons from two of the game's mentors - Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland - while at Pittsburgh. Harman was a starting tackle for the Panthers before taking his first coaching assignment at Haverford. From there he moved on to Sewanee (the University of the South), Pennsylvania and Rutgers. It was at Rutgers that he had his greatest success, directing the Scarlet Knights to a 26-7-1 record before interrupting his career to serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. Harman returned to Rutgers after the war and led the Scarlet Knights for another 10 seasons before accepting a position as Executive Director of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame, Inc. In that capacity, Harman became known as the goodwill ambassador for football, continuing to serve the game until his death in 1969. His career record lists a slate of 140-104-7.

PAUL ROBESON (CLASS OF 1995)

Paul Robeson played four years for the famous coach, G. Foster Sanford. Rutgers had a 22-6-3 record in that time. In 31 games, Rutgers scored 941 points to opponents' 191. Robeson was a powerful contributor to that record. Robeson was a two-time All-America end. Frank Menke named him All-America in 1917 and 1918. Walter Camp picked him in 1918. (Camp did not name an All-America team in 1917.) Following college, Robeson played three years as a pro - 1920 with Hammond, 1921 with Akron and 1922 with Milwaukee - in the American Professional Football League. He obtained his law degree in 1923. At Rutgers, Robeson was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and was valedictorian of the class of 1919. He won the college oratorical contest four-straight years and gave the commencement address at graduation. Robeson won 12 letters in four sports - four in football, three each in basketball and baseball, and two in track. He stood 6-3 in height and his weight was listed at 191 in early years, at 215 in his senior season. This man of many talents became an actor, singer and lecturer. He was on Broadway and in the movies. His rich basso made his signature song "Ol' Man River" a classic. He starred in plays, such as "The Emperor Jones," "Othello," "Showboat," as well as many others, in the U.S., Europe and Africa. In 1925 he made a recording that sold 55,000 copies in four months. In 1972 he received the Whitney Young Memorial Award. Ebony Magazine called him "one of the 10 most important black men in American history." Paul Robeson was born April 9, 1898, in Princeton, N.J. His father, Rev. William Robeson, had escaped slavery in 1860 in North Carolina at age 15. His mother, Maria Bustill, was a teacher. When Paul was a high school senior, he won the statewide academic test and received a scholarship to Rutgers. In 1915, he was the third African-American to enter Rutgers and the first to play football. He died January 23, 1976. After his tenure at Rutgers, he became an accomplished actor, singer and lecturer, and was commemorated on a US postal stamp.

ALEX KROLL (CLASS OF 1997)

Alex Kroll, a consensus All-American center on Rutgers' first undefeated football team in 1961, is the Scarlet Knights' sixth inductee into the College Football Hall of Fame, as a part of the Class of 1997. Kroll, a 6-2, 228-pound center and linebacker, was a major force in Rutgers compiling a 17-1 record in his two years of play "On the Banks." In 1960, the Knights, under coach John Bateman, were 8-1 and followed up with the school's first undefeated campaign, going 9-0 in 1961. Team captain of the lauded 1961 squad, Kroll was a two-time first-team All-ECAC choice and won first-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, United Press International, Newspaper Enterprise Association, Look, and the American Football Coaches Association. Known as a "coach on the field," he was credited with making the quarterback sneak an offensive weapon as Rutgers scored seven touchdowns on that play in 1961 with Kroll clearing the way into the end zone for the signal-caller. He was also a first-team All-East choice by the AP in 1961 and played in the North-South game and the Senior Bowl. In 1960, he was an honorable mention All-American. Following his senior season, he was a second-round draft pick of the New York Titans, playing for one season in 1962. Kroll earned a BA in English Literature in 1962 and was a Henry Rutgers Scholar with a perfect grade point average in his major. He received a National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1961. In 1986, he was awarded the Silver Anniversary Award from the National Collegiate Athletic Association for his collegiate achievements. Immediately following his last game with the Titans, he joined the workforce at Young & Rubicam, the world's largest independent advertising agency, as a copywriter. After a succession of writing and supervisory jobs in the creative department, he was named executive vice president and worldwide creative director in 1970. He was named president and chief operating officer in 1982 and, four years later, Kroll became chairman of Young & Rubicam. He is retired but still serves as Chairman Emeritus of Young & Rubicam.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – In its first postseason action in program history, Rutgers faced Arizona State at Giants Stadium in the inaugural Garden State Bowl in 1978. The Scarlet Knights pulled ahead in the first half on a touchdown by David Dorn and field goal from Kennan Startzell to take a 10-0 lead. However, the Sun Devils closed the gap just before the end of the first half when Mark Malone found Bob Weathers in the end zone. In the third quarter, Arizona State claimed the lead with two Malone touchdown passes and in the final quarter added another score with a rushing touchdown to make the score 28-10. Ted Blackwell brought the Scarlet Knights to within 10 points with his five-yard rushing touchdown and successful two-point conversion. Rutgers had a final chance to take over the game when an offside kick came bouncing its way, but an offside flag on the kickoff erased the Scarlet Knights' good fortune. Arizona State tacked on two touchdowns to secure the 34-18 victory.

PHOENIX – In a Wild West shootout staged at Phoenix's Chase Stadium, Rutgers fell just short of the program's first bowl victory, losing to Arizona State, 45-40, at the Insight Bowl. RU scored the game's first touchdown on a pass from Ryan Hart to Clark Harris, but ASU quickly responded with a TD of its own, evening the game at 7-7. Both teams traded a number of scores, but back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter helped ASU to a 45-33 lead and the eventual victory. Rutgers engineered a 63-yard touchdown drive in the final 51 seconds, but it was not enough as the Sun Devils held on for the 45-40 win.

HOUSTON – Rutgers' most memorable season ended with another milestone victory. Ray Rice rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two touchdown passes, and the 16th-ranked Scarlet Knights won a bowl game for the first time, beating Kansas State in the Texas Bowl, 37-10. Linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half and Rutgers cruised from there, earning an 11th victory for the second time in the school's history. Rice was named the game's Most Valuable Player after topping 100 yards for the 10th time this season and the 15th time in 25 career games. The 5-foot-9, 195-pound sophomore went over 150 yards for the fifth time this season. The Scarlet Knights' seventh-ranked defense manhandled Kansas State's offense, holding the Wildcats to 160 total yards and six first downs. Freshman quarterback Josh Freeman finished 10-for-21 for 124 yards with two interceptions. Kansas State mustered only 94 yards after Frierson's return of Freeman's first interception put Rutgers up 24-10 only 33 seconds out of halftime.

TORONTO – In its third-consecutive bowl game, Rutgers pulled off another program milestone with its second-straight postseason victory as the Scarlet Knights defeated Ball State, 52-30. Ray Rice had one of the finest individual outings in college football history, rushing for a career-high 280 yards and four touchdowns en route to being named the International Bowl's Most Valuable Player, his second-consecutive MVP honor in a bowl game. Rice's 280 yards were the third-most rushing yards in NCAA bowl history. He entered the game with 1,732 yards on the ground and ended his season with 2,012 yards rushing to become the 13th player in NCAA history to amass more than 2,000 yards. The rushing total also set a Big East and school single-season record. The 52 points scored were the most in Rutgers' bowl history. Including both individual and team marks, RU set a total of nine bowl records at the International Bowl.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. – Fitting that Rutgers would end the 2008 season with a come-from-behind win. After winning only one of their first six games, Mike Teel and the Scarlet Knights erased an 11-point second half deficit to defeat North Carolina State in the PapaJohns.com Bowl, 29-23. Leading the comeback -- as he did all season -- was Teel, who passed for 319 yards and two touchdowns, including a 42-yard scoring toss to Kenny Britt to give the Scarlet Knights the lead for good in the fourth quarter. Teel's pass to Britt with 8:30 to play proved to be the winning touchdown. Britt, a third-team All-American, made a juggling catch as he crossed the goal line and finished with six catches for 119 yards. Teel, a senior, was the game's most valuable player. He ended his career on a seven-game winning streak. NC State held a 17-6 halftime edge, led by quarterback Russell Wilson who was 11-for-23 for 186 yards and a score. But Wilson left the game with a strained knee late in the first half and did not return. The Scarlet Knights scored 10 consecutive points in the third quarter on a 31-yard field goal by San San Te and an 11-yard pass from Teel to Tiquan Underwood. Rutgers took a 19-17 lead with 13:31 to play on a 28-yard field by Teel after a 10-play 70-yard drive. The Wolfpack came right back as reserve quarterback Daniel Evans drove them 64 yards in eight plays and hit Anthony Hill with a 16-yard touchdown pass to give NC State a 23-19 lead. But it was only two plays later when Teel hit Britt for the go-ahead score.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. – Rutgers capped off its fifth-straight bowl appearance with its fourth-consecutive bowl victory, defeating Central Florida, 45-24, in the 2009 St. Petersburg Bowl at Tropicana Field. The Scarlet Knights showed a great display of balance in all three phases of the game, recording touchdowns on offensive, defensive and special teams. RU ended the night with two rushing touchdowns, two passing touchdowns, one interception and one kickoff returned for scores. Rutgers gained 380 yards of total offense behind a career passing day from freshman quarterback Tom Savage who completed 14-of-27 passes for 294 yards and two touchdowns. Fellow true freshman Mohamed Sanu also enjoyed a career-best evening as he accounted for three of RU's five touchdowns. Sanu had 13 carries for 41 yards and a pair of touchdowns, in addition to catching four passes for 97 yards and a touchdown. For his performance Sanu was awarded the Most Outstanding Player trophy, joining past bowl honorees Ray Rice (2006 Texas Bowl, 2008 International Bowl) and Mike Teel (2008 PapaJohns.com Bowl).

BRONX, N.Y. – Chas Dodd hit Brandon Coleman for an 86-yard touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter and Jawan Jamison ran for two scores to lead Rutgers over Iowa State, 27-13, in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. The Scarlet Knights ran their bowl winning streak to five and improved to 2-0 this season at Yankee Stadium, where they beat Army earlier in the season. Rutgers, which played in one bowl game before 2005, is 5-1 in the postseason since that season. The Cyclones finished the season on a three-game losing streak, their last win coming on Nov. 18 in Ames, Iowa, when they pulled off the biggest upset of the season against No. 2 Oklahoma State. In this game, Steele Jantz relieved Barnett in the second quarter and helped pull the Cyclones within 20-13 in the fourth on Jeff Woody's 20-yard touchdown run with 10:00 left. After an exchange of punts left Rutgers deep in its own end, Dodd went deep to Coleman. The 6-foot-6 redshirt freshman went over 5-7 cornerback Jeremy Reeves, then outran the corner to the end zone to make it 27-13 with 5:47 left. It was Coleman's only catch, but it turned out to be the play of the game. Jamison, another redshirt freshman giving Rutgers fans hope for more bowls to come, finished with 131 yards on 27 carries.

ORLANDO – Rutgers saw its 2012 season come to an end with a 13-10 overtime loss to Virginia Tech in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando. The loss ended the Scarlet Knights' bowl win streak at five, which had previously been the longest active streak in the nation. In the 15th meeting between the two squads, Rutgers held a 10-0 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Scarlet Knights scored first on a ball that was snapped over Virginia Tech quarterback Logan Thomas and recovered in the end zone by Rutgers linebacker Khaseem Greene on the opening drive. An RU field goal by Nick Borgese late in the opening quarter would be the final points until the last stanza. In the fourth, the Hokies were able to tie it up. In the first overtime possession, the Hokies settled for a 22-yard field goal to take a 13-10 lead. Rutgers had a possession to answer, but after going three-and-out, Borgese missed wide-right on a 42-yard field goal attempt to end the game. Rutgers finished the year 9-4 and earned a share of the school's first Big East Championship.

BRONX, N.Y. – A 47-yard field goal by Kyle Federico brought Rutgers within three with less than nine minutes remaining, but 10 unanswered points by Notre Dame iced the contest, as the Irish defeated the Scarlet Knights, 29-16, in the 2013 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. It was the eighth bowl trip in nine seasons for Rutgers. A Pinstripe Bowl record crowd of 47,122 watched a back-and-forth affair for the majority of the contest, with neither team leading by more than one possession until late in the fourth quarter. Brandon Coleman led RU in receiving with two catches for 65 yards and a touchdown, while Paul James logged 48 yards on 10 rushing attempts. Coleman's touchdown late in the first quarter was the 20th of his career, tying him for the school record. Federico converted all three of his field goal attempts.

2014 QUICK LANE BOWL

RUTGERS 40, NORTH CAROLINA 21

Dec. 26, 2014 • Detroit, Mich.

Ford Field • Attendance: 23,876

North Carolina (6-7)	0	0	7	14	21

DETROIT – In control from the outset, Rutgers thoroughly dominated North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field, turning in one of its stronger performances of the year to finish the 2014 campaign at 8-5. Quarterback Gary Nova threw two touchdown passes, freshmen running backs Josh Hicks and Robert Martin proved to be a dynamic 1-2 punch in the running game, with each topping 100 yards rushing, and the Scarlet Knights' defense quieted the most productive offense in North Carolina history for all but the final 6:45 of the game. The Scarlet Knights jumped out to a 23-0 lead at halftime, sparked by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Nova to Andre Patton on the first drive of the game. Hicks and Martin both added rushing scores to pad the lead, with Kyle Federico connecting from 19 yards away with 11 seconds left in the second quarter. Nova, who finished 9-of-20 for 184 yards, pushed the Scarlet Knights' 23-0 halftime lead to 30-7 with his second touchdown pass - this one a 34-yard strike to Andrew Turzilli - with 7:33 left in the third quarter. The advantage grew to 37-7 on Martin's 28-yard touchdown run with 14:11 to play. Federico tacked on a 31-yard field goal with 10:04 remaining to make it 40-7. Martin and Hicks joined Ray Rice (three times) and Jawan Jamison as the only Rutgers backs to rush for 100 yards in a bowl game. Martin (19 carries for 100 yards and two touchdowns) and Hicks (202 yards and one touchdown on 19 carries) also joined Rice as the only true freshmen to reach 100 in a bowl for the Scarlet Knights. Hicks was named MVP of the game for his efforts. The rushing totals for both Martin and Hicks were career highs, with Rutgers' 340 rushing yards overall the most in program history in a bowl game and the highest total of the season.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Rutgers football lost to No. 20 Wake Forest, 38-10, in the 77th TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, held at TIAA Bank Field. With the 2021 bowl season impacted by the pandemic, the Scarlet Knights put together a roster to compete on just nine days' notice after they were selected to compete in the prestigious Gator Bowl, the sixth-oldest bowl game, on Dec. 23. Quarterback Johnny Langan earned Rutgers' MVP for the game with 57 receiving yards on a career-high six receptions, 20 rushing yards and two completions for 21 yards. Running back Aaron Young scored his team-leading sixth touchdown of the season on the team's opening possession and quarterback Gavin Wimsatt produced a team-long 32-yard rush. On defense, Mohamed Toure (1.5), Desmond Igbinosun (1.0) and Drew Singleton (0.5) all contributed sacks, while Kessawn Abraham led the way with two passes batted away. RU posted eight tackles-for-loss, including one to force a fumble by Igbinosun. Toure recorded a team-high seven tackles to match his career high. After Wake Forest found the end zone on its first possession, Rutgers responded with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive of its own. Quarterback Noah Vedral completed long third-down completions to Matt Alaimo, Jovani Haskins and Joshua Youngblood to set up a 12-yard touchdown run by Young with 5:11 left in the quarter. The Demon Deacons would add another touchdown for a 14-7 advantage at the end of one. The Scarlet Knights marched into enemy territory on their following possession to open the second quarter. Wide receiver Isaiah Washington threw across the field to Johnny Langan for a 27-yard gain, while placekicker Valentino Ambrosio drilled a 28-yard field goal four plays later to make it 14-10 with 12:02 left in the quarter. RU's defense held strong for the remainder of the first half, as it allowed just two field goals.

JONATHAN HOLLOWAY

PRESIDENT OF RUTGERS UNIVERSITY

Jonathan Holloway, a U.S. historian, took office as the 21st president of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, on July 1, 2020. He also serves as a University Professor and Distinguished Professor.

Prior to accepting the presidency of Rutgers, Dr. Holloway was provost of Northwestern University from 2017 to 2020 and a member of the faculty of Yale University from 1999 to 2017. At Yale, he served as Dean of Yale College and the Edmund S. Morgan Professor of African American Studies, History, and American Studies.

President Holloway's scholarly work specializes in post-emancipation U.S. history with a focus on social and intellectual history.

He is the author of African American History: A Very Short Introduction and The Cause of Freedom: A Concise History of African Americans (Oxford University Press, February 2023 and February 2021, respectively). He also published Confronting the Veil: Abram Harris Jr., E. Franklin Frazier, and Ralph Bunche, 1919-1941 (2002), and Jim Crow Wisdom: Memory and Identity in Black America Since 1940 (2013), both with the University of North Carolina Press. He edited Ralph Bunche's A Brief and Tentative Analysis of Negro Leadership (New York University Press, 2005) and coedited Black Scholars on the Line: Race, Social Science, and American Thought in the Twentieth Century (Notre Dame University Press, 2007). He wrote the introduction for the 2015 edition of W.E.B. Du Bois's Souls of Black Folk (Yale University Press), and is working on a new book, A History of Absence: Race and the Making of the Modern World.

Dr. Holloway, who began his academic career at the University of California, San Diego, received a bachelor's degree with honors in American studies from Stanford University and a Ph.D. in history from Yale University.

He serves on boards of the Smithsonian's National Museum of African American History and Culture, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the Gates Cambridge Trust, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Universities Research Association, the Institute of International Education, and the Academic Leadership Institute.

Dr. Holloway is an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Society of American Historians. He is a Fellow of the Council on Foreign Relations.

He is married to Aisling Colón. They have a daughter, Emerson, and son, Ellison.

PRESIDENT HOLLOWAY

PAT HOBBS DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Pat Hobbs is in his ninth year as Director of Athletics at Rutgers University, a tenure marked by unprecedented success both in competition and in the classroom. A New Jersey native with more than 25 years of leadership experience in higher education and public service, Hobbs has made a mark of transforming institutions in the Garden State.

The strategic vision Hobbs outlined in 2019 - The Relentless Pursuit of Excellence - has taken shape with the Scarlet Knights achieving milestones and historic firsts for Rutgers Athletics. The first Big Ten regular season and tournament championships were secured during Hobbs' tenure as women's soccer became the first program to win a Big Ten regular season title. Field hockey followed with the first Big Ten Tournament Championship on the women's side, while men's soccer became the first men's program to be crowned Big Ten Tournament champions.

Aligned in the pursuit of excellence, the 2021-22 season culminated in the best year in Rutgers Athletics history, capping a successful campaign marked by Big Ten Championships, NCAA Tournament berths and record-setting milestones across the board.

Rutgers had nine teams appear in the national rankings during the 2021-22 season, the most programs ranked during the same season in school history. The Scarlet Knights had five teams compete in Big Ten Championship games. Ten programs advanced to NCAA Championship postseason, while football made its first bowl berth since the 2014 season with a trip to the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, the sixth-oldest bowl in the nation.

Men's basketball played in its second-straight NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1975-76 and the Scarlet Knights became the first unranked program in NCAA history to defeat four-consecutive ranked opponents. Women's soccer advanced to its 10th-straight NCAA Tournament, earning a No. 1 seed and a trip to the College Cup for the second time and first since 2015. Wrestling sent seven Scarlet Knights to the NCAA Championships, earning a bronze-medal individual finish at 141-pounds.

Men's lacrosse advanced to its first NCAA Final Four in program history, becoming the first men's team to do so since men's soccer in 1994. The squad established a program record with 15 wins, six over ranked opponents and three top-10 wins. Women's lacrosse made its second-straight NCAA Tournament and advanced to its first Big Ten Championship game in program history. The team recorded a program-record 16 wins, including six over ranked opponents.

This dedication and passion by a hard-working group of student-athletes, coaches and support staff resulted in the highest-ever finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup as Rutgers placed 48th overall.

As Rutgers Athletics and the rest of the world navigated through a global pandemic, the Scarlet Knights were able to turn in a successful 2020-21 season. Through the ups and downs, Rutgers achieved success on all fronts to take a pivotal step towards Hobbs' ultimate vision to write the "next great chapter in Rutgers Athletics history."

In a season where competitions were largely scheduled against Big Ten opponents due to the pandemic, the Scarlet Knights posted their best conference winning percentage since joining the league in 2014. Rutgers had eight programs ranked during the 2020-21 season and 10 teams advance to NCAA postseason play.

The success of the 2020-21 season led to Rutgers earning a 60th-place showing in the final Learfield Directors' Cup, the program's third-highest finish in school history.

Men's basketball punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 30 years, while women's basketball made its 26th NCAA Tournament as a program. Women's soccer earned its ninth-straight bid to the NCAA Tournament, while the men's and women's lacrosse programs each qualified for postseason play. The men's team advanced to the quarterfinals and the women's squad competed in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1999. Rowing also made its second-straight NCAA Championships, posting its highest finish in program history (seventh).

Wrestling had five Scarlet Knights advance to the NCAA Tournament, including two championship semifinalists. Gymnastics sent a representative to the national meet for the third time in program history. Track and field qualified 12 Scarlet Knights in 10 events for the NCAA East Regional and men's golf sent its first representative since 2005 to compete in the NCAA Regional.

A harbinger of things to come for the men's basketball program could be seen during the 2019-20 season as the Scarlet Knights posted their first 20-win season in 37 years and a ranking in the Top-25 poll for the first time in 41 years. Men's basketball sat on the cusp of earning its first NCAA Tournament berth since 1991 before the shutdown of March Madness due to the pandemic. A record 10 sold-out games at the RAC in 2019-20 are evidence of the energy and excitement for the program under head coach Steve Pikiell.

National Championship banners were hoisted to the rafters during Hobbs' tenure with All-American wrestlers Anthony Ashnault and Nick Suriano claiming the first NCAA individual national titles in program history. The pair led a number of NCAA postseason trips in 2018-19. Women's basketball posted a 22-10 record and made its 25th NCAA Tournament berth, while women's soccer garnered its seventh straight NCAA bid. Then-No. 11 field hockey qualified for its first NCAA Tournament since 1986, and rowing, nationally ranked for the first time in program history, placed 11th at NCAA Championships. In addition, softball competed in the National Invitational Softball Championship, its first non-conference postseason tournament since 1996. Athletics also celebrated its first-ever Big Ten Conference Player of the Year with Chris Gotterup being named for men's golf.

As a renowned research institution, academic success is a hallmark of Rutgers University, and the Scarlet Knights continue to carry that mantle. For the fifth-straight year, the multiyear APR score for Rutgers has ranked above the national average in the NCAA. A school-record 419 student-athletes were named to Academic All-Big Ten teams and Rutgers earned its fourth winner of the prestigious Wayne Duke Postgraduate Award, the most of any conference institution since 2014.

The development of capital projects to support these student-athletes is at the forefront of Hobbs' charge to further the mission of the only Power Five conference program located in the nation's largest media market.

HOBBS IS IN HIS NINTH YEAR AT RUTGERS

The Gary and Barbara Rodkin Academic Success Center made its grand opening and serves as home to all student-athletes for their academic pursuits. The state-of-the-art facility provides a range of resources, including academic advising, learning specialists, one-on-one and group tutoring, and houses the locker room areas for the men's and women's soccer and lacrosse programs, and the athletic department administration.

The "Rodkin" follows the RWJBarnabas Health Athletic Performance Center, which opened to the delight of the gymnastics, wrestling, and men's and women's basketball programs. In addition to providing world-class practice facilities, training areas, locker rooms and office spaces for those programs, the Center also represents a partnership between Rutgers and RWJBarnabas Health to create a comprehensive sports medicine program to serve Rutgers athletes, students and communities throughout New Jersey.

Much of the capital project success can be credited to "R B1G Build," a comprehensive campaign launched on Jan. 20, 2016 to raise $100 million for new or upgraded facilities.

With his leadership, Hobbs has directed the construction of The Brown Family Football Locker Room, The Marco Battaglia Football Practice Complex, The Fred Hill Training Complex, The Garutti Strength and Conditioning Center, The Druskin Strength and Conditioning Center and the Abe Suydam Men's Basketball Locker Room. Additional facility improvements have extended to new playing surfaces at Bainton Field and the Rutgers Softball Complex, as well as new locker room areas for softball, field hockey, cross country and track and field.

Enhancing the student-athlete experience is a priority for Hobbs and is laid out in his strategic vision for the athletic department. He placed an emphasis on elevated communication, improved resource allocation and enriched customer service. The Office of Student-Athlete Development and Success completed an organizational redesign and unit rebrand that redefined its mission and vision. The unit has focused on professional development, providing each of the department's student-athletes with an opportunity to earn work experience through internships and professional shadowing.

In the consumer space, Hobbs shepherded the partnership between Rutgers and adidas in 2017, landing the Portland-based company as the official athletic footwear, apparel and accessory brand through 2023-24.

In 2019, Hobbs landed a multi-year partnership with SHI International Corp., making the IT solutions provider the official naming rights partner of Rutgers Stadium. The collaboration with the Somerset, N.J.-based company has driven significant benefits for Rutgers Athletics.

Hobbs also secured the landmark agreement with Jersey Mike's Subs to become the official naming rights partner of Rutgers Athletics and the newly named Jersey Mike's Arena. The partnership between Rutgers and Jersey Mike's pairs two homegrown New Jersey brands, both on a path of tremendous growth and success over the past several years.

Hobbs arrived at Rutgers after notable achievements at Seton Hall University. He joined the Seton Hall Law faculty in 1990 with a specialty in tax law. Hobbs became Associate Dean for Finance in 1995 and was named Dean in 1999, a position he held until 2015. In his years as Dean, he shepherded the Law School through a series of groundbreaking initiatives that raised Seton Hall Law to unprecedented prominence. The school was the fastest-rising law school in the U.S. News & World Report ranking over the past decade. From 2009 to 2011 Hobbs also oversaw Seton Hall's Department of Athletics, bringing new leadership to its men's and women's basketball programs, restructuring the Department, and negotiating the contract with the Prudential Center to serve as the home site for men's basketball games.

The Garden State product also spearheaded the school's largest fundraising initiative, Seton Hall Law Rising, a $25 million-plus campaign that revitalized alumni support and resulted in a contribution rate of over 70 percent.

While working as Dean at Seton Hall Law School, Hobbs also served as a commissioner on the New Jersey State Commission of Investigation from 2004-14. He served as Chair from 2010-14 when he left the Commission to serve as the first-ever Ombudsman to the Office of the Governor under Chris Christie. The position was created in the wake of the Bridgegate scandal.

Hobbs has been dedicated to fostering greater diversity in the legal profession. In 2008, he formed the Dean's Diversity Council, comprising faculty, students, alumni and administration working in concert to enhance the Law School's inclusive environment. In 2012, Hobbs was honored by the Thurgood Marshall College Fund with its Excellence Award for his work on behalf of diversity within the legal profession and for "embodying Justice Thurgood Marshall's commitment to justice, civil rights and education."

Prior to joining Seton Hall Law, Hobbs was a tax attorney with the law firm of Shanley & Fisher in Roseland, New Jersey. He received his B.A. in accounting, magna cum laude, from Seton Hall University, his J.D. from the University of North Carolina and his LL.M. (in taxation) from New York University.

Hobbs, 63, is the proud father of three children and resides in Basking Ridge, New Jersey, with wife, Patrice.

Jimmy Gill has worked with Rutgers football since 2013 and is in his third season as the primary communications contact for the program after being promoted to associate athletic director. He first joined the athletic communications office in 2011 for one academic year before heading to Miami (Fla.) and returning to be part of Rutgers' transition to the Big Ten. Gill also served 11 seasons as the baseball contact and eight as the gymnastics contact for the Scarlet Knights. In 2022, RU saw P Adam Korsak win the Ray Guy Award in becoming the first player program history to win a national on-field award. Gill was promoted from assistant director of athletic communications to associate director in June 2014 and was part of the 2014 staff that was honored by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) as a recipient of the Super 11 Award. Prior to coming back to RU, Gill worked at Miami (Fla.) as the volleyball and third football contact in the fall of 2012. The volleyball team successfully earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament and Gill was named CoSIDA Division I Volleyball East Region Sports Information Director Honoree for his efforts along the way. After the football season, he worked as a media relations assistant for the Orange Bowl committee for its annual game and the BCS National Championship. During the 2011-2012 academic year, Gill served as athletic communications assistant at Rutgers as the contact for baseball, volleyball, women's tennis and gymnastics. He successfully promoted the Big East Player of the Year for baseball in addition to expanding the social media presence for each of his four sports. A native of Lewes, Delaware, he earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Swarthmore (Pa.) College in 2010, before receiving his master's degree in sport administration from the University of Miami (Fla.) in 2011. While working towards his master's degree, Gill worked as a graduate assistant in the UM communications office, helping with all aspects of the office while functioning as the primary women's golf contact. He got his start in the business in the Swarthmore sports information department as a student worker with a primary focus on statistics for various sports. Gill was a four-year starter for the Garnet baseball team, earning all-conference honors and captaining the program's first-ever playoff appearance as a senior in 2010. An outfielder, he left in the top-10 in program history in games played, doubles, RBIs and single-season home runs. Gill resides in Piscataway.

Bradly Derechailo begins his second year as Director of Athletic Communications and ninth year with Rutgers Athletics after joining the staff in June 2015. A two-time Rutgers alumnus, Derechailo serves as the primary contact for the Scarlet Knights' wrestling and women's lacrosse programs as well as secondary duties with football. The Keyport, New Jersey, native majored in journalism and media studies "On the Banks," earning minors in English and digital communication, information and media. As a student intern at Rutgers from 2014-15, Derechailo served as the media contact for the gymnastics team in addition to his daily office responsibilities. Prior to his work with Rutgers Athletic Communications, Derechailo gained experience as a corporate communications intern for the Chubb Group of Insurance Companies during the summer of 2014. As a member of the Chubb Group, Derechailo produced press releases and helped manage the company's social media accounts among numerous other public relations roles. Derechailo also spent time as a writer and editor for The Daily Targum, Rutgers' daily student-run newspaper, working his way up to the role of Associate Sports Editor on the 145th Editorial Board. In his position, he helped manage the sports desk's team of writers, assigning and writing stories which appeared online and in daily print. Teams covered as a beat writer during his tenure with the paper include football, men's basketball, wrestling, and women's soccer. Derechailo graduated from Rutgers University with his bachelor's degree in 2015 and his master's degree in 2019. Derechailo resides in Somerset with his wife, Tory.

Griffin Whitmer, a 2020 graduate of Rutgers, returned to the RU athletic department in March 2022 and currently serves as the primary contact for the Rutgers baseball and women's golf programs. He also assists with the department's football communications efforts. Whitmer joined Rutgers after serving multiple roles in the athletic department at the University of Washington in Seattle. He joined UW in February 2021 as a graduate assistant and was the primary contact for the baseball program. He moved to the role of Communications Assistant in the summer of 2021, continuing his work with the baseball team and also acting as the media contact for both men's and women's soccer, softball and gymnastics. In the fall, he worked with the UW men's soccer team, managing communications, social media and game management efforts for the Huskies, who reached No. 1 in the national rankings, hosted three NCAA Tournament matches and advanced to the National Championship Game in the College Cup. He was the secondary media contact for the UW men's basketball and women's basketball teams and served on the nationally-recognized stat crew for football, working all Washington home games as well as the 2022 Rose Bowl Game. While at UW, Whitmer received a Master of Education in Intercollegiate Athletic Leadership with a focus on administration. Whitmer is a 2020 graduate of Rutgers, holding a degree in Sport Management. At RU, he was a staff writer, Associate Sports Editor and correspondent at The Daily Targum from 2016-18 before moving to the Rutgers athletic department. He worked as a marketing intern from 2018-19 and then as a communications intern from 2019-20.

HASIM PHILLIPS

SENIOR ASSOC. AD/CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER

Office: 732-445-6069 • Cell: 732-470-9457

E-mail: hphillips@scarletknights.com • Twitter: @HasimPhillips

Hasim Phillips serves as Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Communications Officer, with oversight of the department's communication, brand advancement and RVision staffs. Over the past decade, he has worked as a media relations professional in the nation's No. 1 media market with roles both in college athletics and corporate communications. Phillips serves as the primary spokesman for the department and is a member of the executive leadership team. Prior to his elevation to overseeing the communications staff, Phillips was the lead media relations contact for the football program, handling all media inquiries for the program's coaches and players. Additionally, he was the executive producer for the "RFootball Show," a 12-episode television series with distribution throughout the East Coast from New York to areas in South Florida. Phillips also managed all football related content on the school's official athletics website (ScarletKnights.com) and social media channels. For Phillips, this is the second stint with Rutgers Athletics, having previously served with the department from 2004-2012. He began his career in athletic communications at Rutgers in 2004, serving as an assistant until 2007 before becoming an Assistant Director for Athletic Communications from 2007-11. While at Rutgers, he was a member of an athletic communications staff that was twice (2009, 2010) recognized by the Football Writers Association of America as a "Super 11" communications department, awarded to the top PR offices in the country. In 2011, he was elevated to the role of Associate Director of Athletic Communications, serving as the primary media contact for Hall of Fame head coach C. Vivian Stringer and the women's basketball team. Phillips joined The Madison Square Garden Company in 2012 as Manager for Corporate Communications. He assisted in the publicity efforts of the MSG Sports brand, helping promote marketing partnerships and new business initiatives. He also worked to promote the New York Knicks' community service initiative "Basketball in the Boroughs," securing targeted media opportunities to highlight the franchise's work in the community. He was involved with press event planning in the corporate and sports business areas, including the grand reopening event following a historic three-phase, top-to-bottom transformation of Madison Square Garden. He also assisted in preparing senior level management for speaking engagements and developing press materials for marketing partner announcements. Phillips also managed inquiries regarding the use of MSG trademarks or logos in television or film projects. He was responsible for script review and concept approval in addition to working with production crews while filming on site at Madison Square Garden. He served as a liaison between MSG, the corporate offices of the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Hockey League (NHL), and several major motion picture and television studios. Phillips, a native of Brooklyn, New York, is a 2004 graduate of Rutgers University with a degree in sports management. He earned his MBA in marketing and strategy from the Rutgers School of Business in 2019. Phillips resides in Metuchen, New Jersey, with his wife Catherine and their sons, Malakai and Miles.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

COMMISSIONER TONY PETITTI

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal. The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 125 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics. At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics. On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905. Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence. In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country. One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated an enduring relationship that has featured 73 appearances by Big Ten programs. Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive. In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of seven men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971, Jim Delany in 1989, Kevin Warren in 2020 and current commissioner Tony Petitti in 2023. After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again. In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions. While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference. In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations. In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992. In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members. In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved nationwide testing in 2005. A year later, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences. Also in 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 2,200 live events annually as the first internationally distributed network dedicated to covering one of the premier collegiate conference in the country. BTN is in almost 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada alone via all major video distributors in those countries and approximately 300 additional video providers across North America. BTN is also available through the majority of OTT providers, and via the Fox Sports App, which delivers live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. In addition, the B1G+ ("Big Ten Plus") platform streams more than 1,700 additional conference events each season. The Big Ten took its media reach to unprecedented heights on Aug. 18, 2022, with the announcement of a groundbreaking media rights agreement to provide fans with unparalleled access and exposure to its student-athletes and member institutions. Beginning with the 2023-24 academic year and continuing through 2029-30, the Big Ten will increase distribution coast-to-coast, featuring exclusive content across linear networks FOX, CBS and NBC, as well as NBCUniversal's direct-to-consumer streaming platform, Peacock. The breadth of new partners, in addition to BTN and FS1, will place conference football, women's and men's basketball and Olympic sports student-athletes on the biggest stage and provide fans with the most exciting matchups across traditional over-the-air linear television and direct-to-consumer streaming. These landmark media rights agreements are the most comprehensive in all of college sports and further strengthen the tradition of the Big Ten Conference. On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011. The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams. The Big Ten officially stretched from coast to coast on June 30, 2022, when it was announced the COP/C had unanimously voted to admit the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) and the University of Southern California (USC), effective Aug. 2, 2024. Competition will begin for those institutions in conference sports in the 2024-25 academic year. On June 3, 2013, the Big Ten announced that Johns Hopkins University had been accepted as the conference's first sport affiliate member. Johns Hopkins' addition in men's lacrosse gave the Big Ten six institutions sponsoring the sport, allowing the debut of men's lacrosse as an official conference sport and building on the Big Ten's tradition of broad-based sports competition. On June 17, 2015, the conference announced that Johns Hopkins was accepted as a sport affiliate member for women's lacrosse beginning with the 2016-17 academic year. On March 23, 2016, the conference announced that Notre Dame would be joining the Big Ten for men's ice hockey beginning with the 2017-18 academic year. Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten Headquarters and Conference Center, located in Rosemont, Illinois, hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance-related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum — the Big Ten Experience — which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C. Pettiti and his staff work to meet the educational needs of student-athletes to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 27 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 2,000 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel, and remains a vital resource for media and fans seeking information on the Big Ten. On March 7, 2020, in advance of the rising tide of the COVID-19 pandemic, the conference partnered with all 14 of its member institutions to create the Big Ten Task Force for Emerging Infectious Diseases. Less than two months later on May 4, 2020, the conference announced the formation of the Big Ten Mental Health and Wellness Cabinet, featuring representation from all 14 member institutions, as well as sport affiliate members Johns Hopkins (men's and women's lacrosse) and Notre Dame (men's ice hockey). The goal of the cabinet is to promote optimal mental health for Big Ten student-athletes through a comprehensive, systemic and interdisciplinary approach to establishing mental health programs, while also providing counsel, advice and expertise to the conference office. One of the signature moments of Warren's tenure as commissioner came on June 1, 2020, when, following the death of Minneapolis resident George Floyd, he penned an open letter in which he announced the formation of what became known as the Big Ten Equality Coalition. This group, which features student-athletes, coaches, athletic directors, chancellors, presidents and other members of the Big Ten family from all 14 member institutions, has a stated goal of seeking tangible ways to actively and constructively combat racism and hate around the world, while also empowering student-athletes to express their rights to free speech and peaceful protest. The United States Library of Congress selected Warren's open letter for inclusion in its historic collection. A product of the conversations emerging from the coalition was the creation of the Big Ten Voter Registration Initiative. This non-partisan, conference-wide collaboration encourages student-athletes to take part in the electoral process and is led by a Voter Registration Committee that includes representatives from all 14 Big Ten institutions. The Voter Registration Committee has partnered with the National Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law to develop educational programming and outreach tools, and to collaborate with other established civic platforms. More than 125 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.
